Once the application has been filed with the Registrar, the Applicant Partnership will be de-registered within approximately 3-5 business days or 24-36 hours if express de-registration is applied for. There is no pre-approval process available; however, it is possible to send specific queries to the Registrar's office in advance of the filing if there are any areas of uncertainty. The effective date of discontinuation will be the date the application was submitted to the Registrar.

On the de-registration the Registrar will issue a certificate under his hand and seal of office to the effect that the Applicant Partnership has been de-registered as an exempted limited partnership and specifying the date of such de-registration. The Registrar is also required to enter the date of de-registration in the register of exempted limited partnerships. The Registrar will also give notice in the Cayman Gazette of the de-registration of the Applicant Partnership, the jurisdiction under the laws of which the Applicant Partnership has been registered by way of continuation and the name of the Applicant Partnership, if changed.

From the date of the Certificate of De-registration, the Applicant Partnership shall not by virtue of that de-registration alone cease to be a partnership, body corporate or other entity under the laws of the Relevant Jurisdiction. Note however, that de-registration will not operate in relation to the Applicant Partnership:

- (f) to render defective any legal proceedings by or against the Applicant Partnership, and any legal proceedings that could have been continued or commenced by or against the Applicant Partnership before its de-registration may, notwithstanding the de-registration, be continued or commenced by or against the Applicant Partnership after de-registration.
