- (2) Where a trust for sale or a power of sale of land held on lease is vested in a trustee, he may make, on such terms and conditions as he may think proper, a sub-lease of the land or any part thereof with a nominal reversion, where such sub-lease amounts in substance to a sale and the trustees have satisfied themselves that it is the most appropriate method of disposing of the land.
- (3) Where trustees lease any land pursuant to any power conferred on them by subsection (2) they may sell any rent reserved on any reversion expectant upon the determination of such lease.
- (4) Where any sub-lease purports to have been made in exercise of a power conferred by this section, that power shall, until the contrary is proved, be assumed to have been properly exercised and -

(2) No sale made by a trustee shall, after the execution of the conveyance, be impeached as against the purchaser upon the ground that any of the conditions subject to which the sale was made may have been unnecessarily depreciatory, unless it appears that the purchaser was acting in collusion with the trustee at the time when the contract for sale was made.

(3) No purchaser, upon any sale made by a trustee, shall be at liberty to make any objection against the title upon any of the grounds aforesaid.

6. Power to compound liabilities

(1) Any one of several estate representatives, or a sole estate representative, or two or more trustees acting together, or a sole acting trustee where by the instrument, if any, creating the trust, or by any statutory provision, a sole trustee is authorised to execute the trusts and powers reposed in him, may, if and as he or they think fit -

(2) If any such money is receivable by any person, other than the trustees of the trust or settlement, that person shall use his best endeavours to recover and receive the money, and shall pay the net residue thereof, after discharging any costs of recovering and receiving it, to the trustees of the trust or settlement, or, if there are no trustees capable of giving a discharge therefor, into court.

(3) Any such money -

- (a) if it was receivable in respect of property held upon trust for sale, shall be held upon the trusts and subject to the powers and provisions applicable to money arising by a sale under such trust;

(4) Such money, or any part thereof, may also be applied by the trustees, or, if in court, under the direction of the court, in rebuilding, reinstating, replacing, or repairing the property lost or damaged, but any such application by the trustees shall be subject to the consent of any person whose consent is required by the instrument, if any, creating the trust to the investment of money subject to the trust.

(5) Nothing contained in this section prejudices or affects the right of any person to require any such money or any part thereof to be applied in rebuilding, reinstating, or repairing the property lost or damaged, or the rights of any mortgagee, lessor, or lessee, whether under any statutory provision or otherwise.

(6) This section applies to policies effected either before, on or after 1 March 1975, but only to money received after such date.

(2) Where by the terms of the instrument, if any, creating the trust the person in possession for his life or other limited interest is entitled to enjoy the same without any obligation to renew or to contribute to the expense of renewal, this section shall not apply unless the consent in writing of that person is obtained to the renewal on the part of the trustee.

- (3) In exercising any power to delegate, and in supervising the delegate, the trustees shall exercise reasonable care, skill and caution.
- (4) Delegation under this section to a delegate, but not to a co-trustee, may be made on terms which -
- (a) limit the liability of the delegate;
 - (b) do not prohibit actual or potential conflicts of interest in dealing with the trust property; or
 - (c) permit sub-delegation, including on such terms as are mentioned in paragraphs (a) and (b); and the trustees shall not, by reason of delegating on such terms, be responsible for the act or default of any delegate or sub-delegate, provided that the trustees honestly believed delegation to that delegate on those terms to be in the best interests of the trust as a whole.

- (5) In this section "trustee" does not include an estate representative.

[Section 15A inserted by 1999:19 s.3(2) effective 10 July 1999]

16. Power to concur with others

Where an undivided share in the proceeds of sale of land directed to be sold, or in any other property, is subject to a trust, or forms part of the estate of a testator or intestate, the trustees or estate representatives may (without prejudice to any trust for sale affecting the entirety of the land and the powers of the trustees for sale in reference thereto) execute or exercise any trust or power vested in them in relation to such share in conjunction with the persons entitled to or having power in that behalf over the other share or shares, and notwithstanding that any one or more of the trustees or estate representatives may be entitled to or interested in any such other share, either in his or their own right or in a fiduciary capacity.

17. Power to delegate trusts during absence abroad

(1) A trustee intending to remain out of Bermuda³² may, notwithstanding any rule of law or equity to the contrary, by power of attorney, delegate to any person (including a trust corporation) the execution or exercise during his absence from Bermuda of all or any trusts, powers and discretions vested in him as such trustee, either alone or jointly with any other person or persons so, however, that a person being the only other co-trustee and not being a trust corporation shall not be appointed to be an attorney under this subsection.

(2) The donor of a power of attorney given under this section shall be liable for the acts or defaults of the donee in the same manner as if they were the acts or defaults of the donor.

(3) The power of attorney shall not come into operation unless and until the donor is out of Bermuda, and shall be revoked by his return.

(4) In favour of any person dealing with the donee, any act done or instrument executed by the donee shall, notwithstanding that the power has never come into operation or has been revoked by the act of the donor or by his death or return to Bermuda or otherwise, be as valid and effectual as if the donor were alive and of full capacity, and had himself done such act or executed such instrument, unless such person had actual notice that the power had never come into operation or of the revocation of the power before such act was done or instrument executed.

(5) For the purpose of executing or exercising the trusts or powers delegated to him, the donee may exercise any of the powers conferred on the donor as trustee by any Act or by the instrument creating the trust, including power, for the purpose of the transfer of any securities, himself to delegate to an attorney power to transfer such securities but not including the power of delegation conferred by this section.

(6) The fact that it appears from any power of attorney given under this section, or from any evidence required for the purposes of any such power of attorney or otherwise, that in dealing with any securities the donee of the power is acting in the execution of a trust shall not be deemed for any purpose to affect any person in whose books the securities are registered with any notice of the trust.

[Section 17(1) amended by 1999:19 s.4 effective 10 July 1999]

any future claim that may be made in respect of any fixed and ascertained sum which the lessee or grantee agreed to lay out on the property demised or granted, although the period for laying out the same may not have arrived, then and in any such case the estate representative or trustee may convey the property demised or granted to a purchaser, legatee, devisee, or other person entitled to call for a conveyance thereof and thereafter -

- (i) he may distribute the residuary real and personal estate of the deceased testator or intestate, or, as the case may be, the trust estate (other than the fund, if any, set apart as aforesaid) to or amongst the persons entitled thereto, without appropriating any part, or any further part, as the case may be, of the estate of the deceased or of the trust estate to, meet any future liability under the said lease or grant;
- (ii) notwithstanding such distribution, he shall not be personally liable in respect of any subsequent claim under the said lease or grant.

(2) This section operates without prejudice to the right of the lessor or grantor, or the persons deriving title under the lessor or grantor, to follow the assets of the deceased or the trust property into the hands of the persons amongst whom the same may have been respectively distributed, and applies notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the will or other instrument, if any, creating the trust.

(2) At the expiration of the time fixed by the notice the trustees may convey or distribute the property or any part thereof to which the notice relates, to or among the persons entitled thereto, having regard only to the claims, whether formal or not, of which the trustees then had notice and shall not, as respects the property so conveyed or distributed, be liable to any person whose claim the trustees have not had notice at the time of conveyance or distribution; but nothing in this section -

- (a) prejudices the right of any person to follow the property, or any property representing the same, into the hands of any person, other than a purchaser, who may have received it; or
- (b) frees the trustees from any obligation to make inquiries and searches or obtain official certificates of search similar to those which an intending purchaser would be advised to make or obtain.

(3) This section applies notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the will or other instrument, if any, creating the trust.

(4) This section does not apply to the protection of estate representatives by means of advertisements under section 53 of the Administration of Estates Act 1974 [title 26 item 12].

20. Protection in regard to notice

A trustee or estate representative acting for the purposes of more than one trust or estate shall not, in the absence of fraud, be affected by notice of any instrument, matter, fact or thing in relation to any particular trust or estate if he has obtained notice thereof merely by reason of his acting or having acted for the purposes of another trust or estate.

21. Power of trustees to pay to attorney appointed by beneficiary

A trustee acting or paying money in good faith under or in pursuance of any power of attorney shall not be liable for any such act or payment by reason of the fact that at the time of the act or payment the person who gave the power of attorney was subject to any disability or bankrupt or dead, or had done or suffered some act or thing to avoid the power, if this fact was not known to the trustee at the time of his so acting or paying so, however, that -

- (a) nothing in this section shall affect the right of any person entitled to the money against the person to whom the payment is made;
- (b) the person so entitled shall have the same remedy against the person to whom the payment is made as he would have had against the trustee.

22. Implied indemnity of trustees

(1) A trustee shall be chargeable only for money and securities actually received by him notwithstanding his signing any receipt for the sake of conformity, and shall be answerable and accountable only for his own acts, receipts, neglects, or defaults, and not for those of any other trustee, nor for those of any bank, broker, or other person with whom any trust money or securities may be deposited, nor for the insufficiency or deficiency of any securities, nor for any other loss, unless the same happens through his own deliberate, reckless or negligent breach of an equitable duty.³³

(2) A trustee may reimburse himself or pay or discharge out of the trust premises all expenses incurred in or about the execution of the trusts or powers.

[Section 22(1) amended by 1999:19 s.5 effective 10 July 1999]

22A. Remuneration of trust corporations³⁴

Subject to -

- (a) any contrary intention in the terms of the trust; or
- (b) any order of a court,

a trust corporation shall be entitled to reasonable remuneration for its services as trustee, in addition to reimbursement of its expenses under section 22(2).

[Section 22A inserted by 1999:19 s.6 effective 10 July 1999]

MAINTENANCE, ADVANCEMENT AND PROTECTIVE TRUSTS23. Power to apply income for maintenance and to accumulate surplus income during a minority

(1) Where any property is held by trustees in trust for any person for any estate or interest whatsoever, whether vested or contingent, then, subject to any prior estates or interests or charges affecting that property -

- (a) during the infancy of any such person, if his estate or interest so long continues, the trustees may, at their sole discretion, pay to his parent or guardian, if any, or otherwise apply for or towards his maintenance or education, or otherwise for his benefit, the whole or such part, if any, of the income of that property as may, in all the circumstances, be reasonable, whether or not there is -

- (i) any other fund applicable to the same purpose; or
 - (ii) any person bound by law to provide for his maintenance or education; and
- (b) if such person on attaining the age of eighteen³⁵ years has not a vested estate or interest in such income, the trustees shall thenceforth pay the income of that property and of any accretion thereto under subsection (3) to him, until he either attains a vested estate or interest therein or dies, or until failure of his estate or interest.

(2) In deciding whether the whole or any part of the income of the property is during a minority to be paid or applied for the purposes aforesaid, the trustees shall have regard to the age of the infant and his requirements and generally to the circumstances of the case, and in particular to what other income, if any, is applicable for the same purposes; and where trustees have notice that the income of more than one fund is applicable for those purposes, then, so far as practicable, unless the entire income of the funds is paid or applied as aforesaid or the court otherwise directs, a proportionate part only of the income of each fund shall be so paid or applied.

(3) During the infancy of any such person, if his estate or interest so long continues, the trustees shall accumulate all the residue of that income in the way of compound interest by investing the same and the resulting income thereof from time to time in authorised investments, and shall hold those accumulations as follows: -

- (a) if any such person -
 - (i) attains the age of eighteen³⁶ years, or marries under that age, and his estate or interest in such income during his infancy or until his marriage is a vested estate or interest; or
 - (ii) on attaining the age of eighteen³⁷ years or on marriage under that age becomes entitled to the property from which such income arose in fee simple, or absolutely, or for an entailed estate or interest, the trustees shall hold the accumulation in trust for such person absolutely, but without prejudice to any provision with respect thereto contained in any settlement by him made under any statutory powers during his infancy, and so that the receipt of such person after marriage, and though still an infant, shall be a good discharge; and

- (b) in any other case the trustees shall, notwithstanding that such person had a vested estate or interest in such income, hold the accumulations as an accretion to the capital of the property from which such accumulations arose, and as one fund with such capital for all purposes, and so that, if such property is settled land, such accumulations shall be held upon the same trusts as if the same were capital money arising therefrom, but the trustees may, at any time during the infancy of such person if his estate or interest so long continues, apply those accumulations, or any part thereof, as if they were income arising in the then current year.

(4) This section applies in the case of a contingent estate or interest only if the limitation or trust carries the intermediate income of the property, but it applies to a future or contingent legacy by the parent of, or a person standing in loco parentis to, the legatee, if and for such period as, under any provision of law, the legacy carries interest for the maintenance of the legatee, and in any such case at last aforesaid the rate of interest shall (if the income available is sufficient, and subject to any rules of court to the contrary) be five per centum per annum.

(5) This section applies to a vested annuity in like manner as if the annuity were the income of property held by trustees in trust to pay the income thereof to the annuitant for the same period for which the annuity is payable, save that in any case accumulations made during the infancy of the annuitant shall be held in trust for the annuitant or his estate representatives absolutely.

(6) This section does not apply where the instrument, if any, under which the interest arises came into operation before 1 March 1975.

[Section 23 subsection (1)(b), (3)(a)(i) and (ii) amended by 2001:20 s.7(1) & Sch 2 effective 1 November 2001]

24. Power of advancement

(1) Trustees may at any time or times pay or apply any capital money subject to a trust, for the advancement or benefit, in such manner as they may, in their absolute discretion, think fit, of any person entitled to the capital of the trust property or of any share thereof, whether absolutely or contingently on his attaining any specified age or on the occurrence of any other event, or subject to a gift over on his death under any specified age or on the occurrence of any other event, and whether in possession or in remainder or reversion, and such payment or application may be made notwithstanding that the estate or interest of such person is liable to be defeated by the exercise of a power of appointment or revocation, or to be diminished by the increase of the class to which he belongs so, however, that -

- (a) the money so paid or applied for the advancement or benefit of any person shall not exceed altogether the amount of the presumptive or vested share, estate or interest of that person in the trust property; and
- (b) if that person is or becomes absolutely and indefeasibly entitled to a share in the trust property the money so paid or applied shall be brought into account as part of such share; and
- (c) no such payment or application shall be made so as to prejudice any person entitled to any prior life or other estate or interest, whether vested or contingent, in the money paid or applied unless such person is in existence and of full age and consents in writing to such payment or application.

(2) This section applies only where the trust property consists of -

- (a) money or securities which are not by any provision of law or in equity considered as land; or
- (b) property held upon trust for sale, calling in and conversion and the proceeds of such sale, calling in and conversion are not in equity considered as land.

(3) [REPEALED]³⁸

(4) For the avoidance of doubt, when exercising the power of advancement the trustees may -³⁹

- (a) create any provisions, including -
 - (i) discretionary trusts and dispositive, administrative or managerial powers exercisable by any person; and
 - (ii) the delegation of discretions and duties to any person; and
- (b) provide that the capital money may become subject to the terms of any other trust, provided that the requirements of subsection (1) are satisfied.

[Section 24 subsection (4) added by 1999:19 s.7 effective 10 July 1999; subsection (3) repealed by 2004:34 s.2 effective 17 December 2004]

25. Protective trusts

(1) Where any income, including an annuity or other periodical income payment, is directed to be held on protective trusts for the benefit of any person (in this section referred to as "the principal beneficiary") for the period of his life or any less period, then, during that period (in this section referred to as "the trust period") the said income shall, without prejudice to any prior estate or interest be held -

- (a) upon trust for the principal beneficiary until whichever of the following events shall first occur -
 - (i) the trust period expires; or
 - (ii) the principal beneficiary (whether before or after the termination of any prior estate or interests) does or attempts to do or suffers any act or thing, or until any other event (not being an advance under any statutory or express power) happens whereby, if during the trust period the said income were payable to the principal beneficiary absolutely, he would be deprived of the right to receive the same or any part thereof; and
- (b) upon trust, where any of the events referred to in subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (a) happens during the subsistence of the trust period, to apply the said income (as the trustees in their absolute discretion, without being liable to account for the exercise of their discretion, think fit) for the maintenance or support, or otherwise for the benefit, of all or any one or more exclusively of the other or others of the following persons -
 - (i) the principal beneficiary and his or her wife or husband, if any, and his or her children or more remote issue, if any; and
 - (ii) if as often as and while there is no living issue of the principal beneficiary, the principal beneficiary and his or her wife or husband, if any, and the persons who, if the principal beneficiary were actually dead without having married would for the time being be his next of kin, so that the trustees in the exercise of their discretion may apply any income accrued but unapplied in any previous year for the purposes of the trusts implied as aforesaid in any subsequent year.

(2) This section does not apply to trusts coming into operation before 1 March 1968, and has effect subject to any variation of the trusts implied as aforesaid contained in the instrument creating the trust.

(3) Nothing in this section operates to validate any trust which would, if contained in the instrument creating the trust, be liable to be set aside.

PART III - APPOINTMENT AND DISCHARGE OF TRUSTEES26. Power of appointing new or additional trustees

(1) Where a trustee, whether original, substituted or additional, and whether appointed by a court or otherwise, is dead, or remains out of Bermuda for more than twelve months, or desires to be discharged from all or any of the trusts or powers reposed in or conferred on him, or refuses or is unfit to act therein, or is incapable of acting therein, then -

- (a) the person or persons nominated for the purpose of appointing new trustees by the instrument, if any, creating the trust; or
- (b) if there is no such person, or no such person able and willing to act, then the surviving or continuing trustees or trustee for the time being, or the estate representatives of the last surviving or continuing trustee, may, by writing, appoint one or more other persons (whether or not being the persons exercising the power) to be a trustee or trustees in the place of the trustee so deceased, remaining out of Bermuda, desiring to be discharged, refusing, or being unfit or being incapable, as aforesaid.

(2) Where a trustee has been removed under a power contained in the instrument creating the trust, a new trustee or new trustees may be appointed in the place of the trustee who is removed, as if he were dead, or, in the case of a corporation, as if the corporation desired to be discharged from the trust, and this section shall apply accordingly.

(3) Where a corporation being a trustee is or has been dissolved, either before, on or after 1 March 1975, then, for the purposes of this section and of any statutory provision replaced thereby, the corporation shall be deemed to be and to have been from the date of the dissolution incapable of acting in the trusts or powers reposed in or conferred on the corporation.

(4) The power of appointment given by subsection (1) or any similar previous statutory provision to the estate representatives of a last surviving or continuing trustee shall be and shall be deemed always to have been exercisable by the executors for the time being (whether original or by representation) of such surviving or continuing trustee who have proved the will of their testator or by the administrators for the time being of such trustee without the concurrence of any executor who has renounced or has not proved.

(5) But a sole or last surviving executor intending to renounce, or all the executors where they all intend to renounce, shall have and shall be deemed always to have had power, at any time before renouncing probate, to exercise the power of appointment given by this section, or by any similar previous enactment, if willing to act for that purpose and without thereby accepting the office of executor.

(6) Where a sole trustee, other than a trust corporation, is or has been originally appointed to act in a trust, or where, in the case of any trust, there are not more than three trustees (none of them being a trust corporation) whether original, substituted or additional and whether appointed by the court or otherwise, then and in any such case -

- (a) the person or persons nominated for the purpose of appointing new trustees by the instrument, if any, creating the trust; or
- (b) if there is no such person, or no such person able and willing to act, then the trustee or trustees for the time being,

may, by writing, appoint one or more other persons (whether or not being the persons exercising the power) to be an additional trustee or additional trustees, but it shall not be obligatory to appoint any additional trustee unless the instrument, if any, creating the trust, or any statutory provision provides to the contrary.

(7) Every new trustee appointed under this section as well before as after all the trust property becomes by law, or by assurance, or otherwise, vested in him shall have the same powers, authorities, and discretions, and may in all respects act as if he had been originally appointed a trustee by the instrument, if any, creating the trust.

(8) The provisions of this section relating to a trustee who is dead include the case of a person nominated trustee in a will but dying before the testator, and those relative to a continuing trustee include a refusing or retiring trustee, if willing to act in the execution of the provisions of this section.

(9) Where a trustee is incapable, by reason of mental disorder within the meaning of the Mental Health Act 1968 [title 11 item 36], of exercising his functions as trustee and is also entitled in possession to some beneficial interest in the trust property, no appointment of a new trustee in his place shall be made by virtue of subsection (1)(b) unless leave to make the appointment has been given by the judicial authority appointed to act for the purposes of Part IV of the Mental Health Act 1968.

27. Supplemental provisions as to appointment of trustees

On the appointment of a trustee for the whole or any part of trust property -

- (a) the number of trustees may be increased; and
- (b) a separate set of trustees may be appointed for any part of the trust property held on trusts distinct from those relating to any other part or parts of the trust property, notwithstanding that no new trustees or trustee are or is to be appointed for other parts of the trust property, and any existing trustee may be appointed or remain one of such separate set of trustees, or, if only one trustee was originally appointed, then, save as hereinafter provided, one separate trustee may be so appointed; and
- (c) it shall not be obligatory, save as hereinafter provided, to appoint more than one new trustee where only one trustee was originally appointed, or to fill up the original number of trustees where more than two trustees were originally appointed but, except where only one trustee was originally appointed, a trustee shall not be discharged from his trust unless there will be⁴⁰ a trust corporation, any other body corporate, wherever incorporated, with power to act as a trustee or at least two individuals to act as trustees⁴¹ to perform the trust; and
- (d) any assurance or thing requisite for vesting the trust property, or any part thereof, in a sole trustee, or jointly in the persons who are the trustees, shall be executed or done.

[Section 27 amended by 1999:19 effective 10 July 1999]

28. Evidence as to a vacancy in a trust

(1) A statement, contained in any instrument coming into operation after 1 March 1975 by which a new trustee is appointed for any purpose connected with land, to the effect that a trustee has remained out of Bermuda for more than twelve months or refuses or is unfit to act, or is incapable of acting, or that he is not entitled to a beneficial interest in the trust property in possession, shall, in favour of a bona fide purchaser, be conclusive evidence of the matter stated.

(2) In favour of such purchaser any appointment of a new trustee depending on that statement, and any vesting declaration, express or implied, consequent on the appointment, shall be valid.

29. Retirement of trustee without a new appointment

(1) Where a trustee is desirous of being discharged from the trust or a severable part of the trust, and after his discharge there will be⁴² a trust corporation, any other body corporate, wherever incorporated, with power to act as a trustee⁴³ or at least two individuals to act as trustees to perform the trust, then, if such trustee as aforesaid by deed declares that he is desirous of being discharged from the trust or the severable part thereof, and if his co-trustees and such other person, if any, as is empowered to appoint trustees, by deed consent to the discharge of the trustee, and to the vesting in the co-trustees alone of the trust property, the trustee desirous of being discharged shall be deemed to have retired from the trust or a severable part thereof, and shall, by the deed, be discharged therefrom under this Act, without any new trustee being appointed in his place.

(2) Any assurance or thing requisite for vesting the trust property in the continuing trustees alone shall be executed or done.

[Section 29 amended by 1999:19 s.8 effective 10 July 1999]

30. Vesting of trust property in new or continuing trustees

(1) Where by a deed a new trustee is appointed to perform any trust, then -

- (a) if the deed contains a declaration by the appointor to the effect that any estate or interest in any land subject to the trust, or in any chattel so subject, or the right to recover or receive any debt or other thing in action so subject, shall vest in the persons who by virtue of the deed become or are the trustees for performing the trust, the deed shall operate, without any conveyance or assignment, to vest in those persons as joint tenants and for the purposes of the trust the estate, interest or right to which the declaration relates; and
 - (b) if the deed is made after 1 March 1975 and does not contain such a declaration, the deed shall, subject to any express provision to the contrary therein contained, operate as if it had contained such a declaration by the appointor extending to all the estates, interests and rights with respect to which a declaration could have been made.
- (2) Where by a deed a retiring trustee is discharged under the statutory power without a new trustee being appointed, then -
- (a) if the deed contains such a declaration as aforesaid by the retiring and continuing trustees, and by the other person, if any, empowered to appoint trustees, the deed shall, without any conveyance or assignment, operate to vest in the continuing trustees alone, as joint tenants, and for the purposes of the trust, the estate, interest, or right to which the declaration relates; and
 - (b) if the deed is made after 1 March 1975 and does not contain such a declaration, the deed shall, subject to any express provision to the contrary therein contained, operate as if it had contained such a declaration by such persons as aforesaid extending to all the estates, interests and rights with respect to which a declaration could have been made.
- (3) An express vesting declaration, whether made before, on or after 1 March 1975, shall, notwithstanding that the estate, interest or right to be vested is not expressly referred to, and provided that the other statutory requirements were or are complied with, operate and be deemed always to have operated (but without prejudice to any express provision to the contrary contained in the deed of appointment or discharge) to vest in the persons respectively referred to in subsections (1) and (2), as the case may require, such estates, interests and rights as are capable of being and ought to be vested in those persons.
- (4) This section does not extend -
- (a) to land conveyed by way of mortgage for securing money subject to the trust, except land conveyed on trust for securing debentures or debenture stock;
 - (b) to land held under a lease which contains any covenant, condition or agreement against assignment or disposing of the land without licence or consent, unless, prior to the execution of the deed containing expressly or impliedly the vesting declaration, the requisite licence or consent has been obtained, or unless, by virtue of any rule of law, the vesting declaration, express or implied, would not operate as a breach of covenant or give rise to a forfeiture;
 - (c) to any share, stock, annuity or property which is only transferable in books kept by a company or other body, or in manner directed by or under any statutory provision.

In this subsection "lease" includes an underlease and an agreement for a lease or underlease.

PART III A - MANAGING TRUSTEES⁴⁴

30A. Managing trustees

A trust instrument may contain provisions by virtue of which the exercise of any of the trustees' powers may be reserved to a managing trustee, and no other trustee is liable for any of the decisions, acts or transactions of the managing trustee in so far as they amount to exercise of powers reserved by the trust instrument to the managing trustee.

[Part III A, Section 30A inserted by 1999:19 s.9 effective 10 July 1999]

PART IV - POWERS OF THE COURT

APPOINTMENT OF NEW TRUSTEES

31. Power of court to appoint new trustees

(1) The court may, whenever it is expedient to appoint a new trustee or new trustees, and it is found inexpedient, difficult or impracticable so to do without the assistance of the court, make an order appointing a new trustee or new trustees either in substitution for or in addition to any existing trustee or trustees, or although there is no existing trustee.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), the court may make an order appointing a new trustee in substitution for a trustee who is incapable, by reason of mental disorder within the meaning of the Mental Health Act 1968 [title 11 item 36], of exercising his functions as trustee, or is a bankrupt, or is a corporation which is in liquidation or has been dissolved, or who for any other reason whatsoever appears to the court to be undesirable as a trustee.

(3) An order under this section, and any consequential vesting order or conveyance, shall not operate further or otherwise as a discharge to any former or continuing trustee than an appointment of new trustees under any power for that purpose contained in any instrument would have operated.

(4) Nothing in this section gives power to appoint an executor or administrator.

32. Power of court to authorise remuneration

The court may, in any case in which the circumstances appear to it so to justify, authorise any person to charge such remuneration for his services as trustee as the court may think fit.

33. Powers of new trustee appointed by the court

Every trustee appointed by a court of competent jurisdiction shall, as well before as after the trust property becomes by law, or by assurance, or otherwise, vested in him, have the same powers, authorities, and discretions, and may in all respects act as if he had been originally appointed a trustee by the instrument, if any, creating the trust.

VESTING ORDERS

34. Vesting orders of land

(1) Subject to subsection (2), where -

- (a) the court appoints or has appointed a trustee, or where a trustee has been appointed out of court under any statutory or express power; or
- (b) a trustee entitled to or possessed of any land or estate or interest therein, whether by way of mortgage or otherwise, or entitled to a contingent right therein, either solely or jointly with any other person -
 - (i) is an infant; or
 - (ii) is out of the jurisdiction of the court; or
 - (iii) cannot be found, or, being a corporation, has been dissolved; or

- (c) it is uncertain who was the survivor of two or more trustees jointly entitled to or possessed of any estate or interest in land; or
- (d) it is uncertain whether the last trustee known to have been entitled to or possessed of any estate or interest in land is living or dead; or
- (e) there is no estate representative of a deceased trustee who was entitled to or possessed of any estate or interest in land, or where it is uncertain who is the estate representative of a deceased trustee who was entitled to or possessed of any estate or interest in land; or
- (f) a trustee jointly or solely entitled to or possessed of any estate or interest in land, or entitled to a contingent right therein, has been required, by or on behalf of a person entitled to require a conveyance of the land or estate or interest or a release of the right, to convey the land or estate or interest or to release the right, and has wilfully refused or neglected to convey the land or estate or interest or release the right for twenty-eight days after the date of the requirement; or
- (g) land or any estate or interest therein is vested in a trustee whether by way of mortgage or otherwise, and it appears to the court to be expedient;

the court may make an order (in this Act referred to as a "vesting order") vesting the land or estate or interest therein in any such person in any such manner and for any such estate or interest as the court may direct, or releasing or disposing of the contingent right to such person as the court may direct.

- (2) Where an order made under subsection (1) -
 - (a) is consequential on the appointment of a trustee the land or estate or interest therein shall be vested for such estate or interest as the court may direct in the persons who on the appointment are the trustees; and
 - (b) relates to a trustee entitled or formerly entitled jointly with another person, and such trustee is an infant or out of the jurisdiction of the court or cannot be found, or being a corporation has been dissolved, the land estate interest or right shall be vested in such other person who remains entitled, either alone or with any other person the court may appoint.

35. Orders as to contingent rights of unborn persons

Where any estate or interest in land is subject to a contingent right in an unborn person or class of unborn persons who, on coming into existence would, in respect thereof, become entitled to or possessed of that estate or interest on any trust, the court may make an order -

- (a) releasing the land or estate or interest therein from the contingent right; or
- (b) vesting in any person the estate or interest to or of which the unborn person or class of unborn persons would, on coming into existence, be entitled or possessed in the land.

36. Vesting order in place of conveyance by infant mortgagee

Where any person entitled to or possessed of any estate or interest in land, or entitled to a contingent right in land, by way of security for money, is an infant, the court may make an order vesting or releasing or disposing of the estate or interest in the land or the right in like manner as in the case of an infant trustee.

37. Vesting order in place of conveyance by estate representative of mortgagee

Where -

- (a) a mortgagee of land has died without having entered into possession or into the receipt of the rents and profits thereof; and

- (b) the money due in respect of the mortgage has been paid to a person entitled to receive the same, or that person consents to an order for the reconveyance of the land, the court may make an order vesting the land in such person in such manner and for such estate or interest as the court may direct, where -

- (i) an estate representative or devisee of the mortgagee is out of the jurisdiction of the court or cannot be found, or, being a corporation, has been dissolved; or
- (ii) an estate representative or devisee of the mortgagee on demand made by or on behalf of a person entitled to require a conveyance of the land has stated in writing that he will not convey the same or does not convey the same for the space of twenty-eight days after a proper instrument for conveying the land has been tendered to him by or on behalf of the person so entitled; or
- (iii) it is uncertain which of several devisees of the mortgagee was the survivor; or
- (iv) it is uncertain whether the estate representative of the mortgagee or the survivor of several devisees of the mortgagee is living or dead; or
- (v) there is no estate representative to a mortgagee who has died intestate as to the land, or where the mortgagee has died, and it is uncertain who is his estate representative or devisee.

38. Vesting order consequential on order for sale or mortgage of land

Where the court gives a judgment or makes an order directing the sale or mortgage of any land, every person who is entitled to or possessed of any estate or interest in the land, or entitled to a contingent right therein, and is a party to the action or proceeding in which the judgment or order is given or made or is otherwise bound by the judgment or order, shall be deemed to be so entitled or possessed, as the case may be, as a trustee for the purposes of this Act, and the court may, if it thinks expedient, make an order vesting the land or any part thereof for such estate or interest as the court thinks fit in the purchaser or mortgagee or in any other person.

39. Vesting order consequential on judgment for specific performance, etc.

Where a judgment is given for the specific performance of a contract concerning any estate or interest in land, or for the partition, or for sale or exchange of any estate or interest in land, or generally where any judgment is given for the conveyance of any estate or interest in land either in cases arising out of the doctrine of election or otherwise, the court may declare -

- (a) that any of the parties to the action are trustees of any estate or interest in the land or any part thereof within the meaning of this Act; or
- (b) that the estates or interests of unborn persons who might claim under any party to the action, or under the will or voluntary settlement of any deceased person who was during his lifetime a party to the contract or transaction concerning which the judgment is given, are the estates or interests of persons who, on coming into existence, would be trustees within the meaning of this Act; and thereupon the court may make a vesting order relating to the rights of those persons, born and unborn, as if they had been trustees.

40. Effect of vesting order

A vesting order under any of the foregoing provisions shall in the case of a vesting order consequential on the appointment of a trustee, have the same effect -

- (a) as if the persons who before the appointment were the trustees, if any, had duly executed all proper conveyances of the land for such estate or interest as the court directs; or
- (b) if there is no such person, or no such person of full capacity, as if such person had existed and been of full capacity and had duly executed all proper conveyances of the land for such estate or interest as the court directs, and shall in every other case have the same effect as if the trustee or other person or description or class of persons to whose rights or supposed rights the said provisions respectively relate had been an ascertained and existing person of full capacity, and had executed a conveyance or release to the effect intended by the order.

41. Power to appoint person to convey

Where a vesting order can be made under any of the foregoing provisions, the court may, if it is more convenient, appoint a person to convey the land or any interest therein or release the contingent right, and a conveyance or release by that person in conformity with the order shall have the same effect as an order under the appropriate provision.

42. Vesting orders as to stock and things in action

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), where -
 - (a) the court appoints or has appointed a trustee, or where a trustee has been appointed out of court under any statutory or express power; or
 - (b) a trustee entitled, whether by way of mortgage or otherwise, alone or jointly with another person to stock or to a thing in action -
 - (i) is an infant; or
 - (ii) is out of the jurisdiction of the court; or
 - (iii) cannot be found, or, being a corporation, has been dissolved; or
 - (iv) neglects or refuses to transfer stock or receive the dividends or income thereof, or to sue for or recover a thing in action, according to the direction of the person absolutely entitled thereto for twenty-eight days next after a request in writing has been made to him by the person so entitled; or
 - (v) neglects or refuses to transfer stock or receive the dividends or income thereof, or to sue for or recover a thing in action for twenty-eight days next after an order of the court for that purpose has been served on him; or
 - (c) it is uncertain whether a trustee entitled alone or jointly with another person to stock or to a thing in action is alive or dead; or
 - (d) stock is standing in the name of a deceased person whose estate representative is under disability; or
 - (e) stock or a thing in action is vested in a trustee whether by way of mortgage or otherwise and it appears to the court to be expedient, the court may make an order vesting the right to transfer or call for a transfer of stock, or to receive the dividends or income thereof, or to sue for or recover the thing in action, in any such person as the court may appoint.

- (2) Where -
 - (a) an order made under subsection (1) is consequential on the appointment of a trustee, the right shall be vested in the persons who, on the appointment, are the trustees; and

- (b) the person whose right is dealt with by an order made under subsection (1) was entitled jointly with another person, the right shall be vested in that last-mentioned person either alone or jointly with any other person whom the court may appoint.

(3) Where a vesting order can be made under this section, the court may, if it is more convenient, appoint some proper person to make or join in making the transfer so, however, that the person appointed to make or join in making a transfer of stock shall be some proper officer of the bank, or the company or society whose stock is to be transferred.

(4) The person in whom the right to transfer or call for the transfer of any stock is vested by an order of the court under this Act, may transfer the stock to himself or any other person, according to the order, and the bank and all other companies shall obey every order under this section according to its tenor.

(5) After notice in writing of an order under this section it shall not be lawful for the bank or any other company to transfer any stock to which the order relates or to pay any dividends thereon except in accordance with the order.

(6) The court may make declarations and give directions concerning the manner in which the right to transfer any stock or thing in action vested under this Act is to be exercised.

(7) The provisions of this Act as to vesting orders shall apply to shares in British ships registered in Bermuda as if they were stock.

43. Vesting orders of charity property

The powers conferred by this Act as to vesting orders may be exercised for vesting any estate or interest in land, stock, or thing in action in any trustee of a charity or society over which the court would have jurisdiction upon action duly instituted, whether the appointment of the trustee was made by instrument under a power or by the court under its general or statutory jurisdiction.

44. Vesting orders in relation to infant's beneficial interests

Where an infant is beneficially entitled to any property the court may, with a view to the application of the capital or income thereof for the maintenance, or education, or otherwise for the benefit of the infant, make an order -

- (a) appointing a person to convey such property; or
- (b) in the case of stock, or a thing in action, vesting in any person the right to transfer or call for a transfer of such stock, or to receive the dividends or income thereof, or to sue for and recover such thing in action, upon such terms as the court may think fit.

45. Orders made upon certain allegations to be conclusive evidence

Where a vesting order is made as to any land under this Act or under any Act relating to persons of unsound mind founded on an allegation -

- (a) of the personal incapacity of a trustee or mortgagee; or
- (b) that a trustee or mortgagee or the estate representative of or other person deriving title under a trustee or mortgagee is out of the jurisdiction of the court or cannot be found, or being a corporation has been dissolved; or
- (c) that it is uncertain which of two or more trustees, or which of two or more persons interested in a mortgage, was the survivor; or
- (d) that it is uncertain whether the last trustee or the estate representative of or other person deriving title under a trustee or mortgagee, or the last surviving person interested in a mortgage is living or dead; or

- (e) that any trustee or mortgagee has died intestate without leaving a person beneficially interested under the intestacy or has died and it is not known who is his estate representative or the person interested, the fact that the order has been so made shall be conclusive evidence of the matter so alleged in any court upon any question as to the validity of the order; but this section does not prevent the court from directing a reconveyance or surrender or the payment of costs occasioned by any such order if improperly obtained.

46. Application of vesting order to property out of Bermuda

The powers of the court to make vesting orders under this Act shall extend to all property wherever situated.

JURISDICTION TO MAKE OTHER ORDERS

47. Power of court to authorise transactions relating to trust property

(1) Where any transaction affecting or concerning any property vested in trustees, is in the opinion of the court expedient, but the same cannot be effected by reason of the absence of any power for that purpose vested in the trustees by the instrument, if any, creating the trust, or by any provision of law, the court may by order confer upon the trustees, either generally or in any particular instance, the necessary power for the purpose, on such terms and subject to such provisions and conditions, if any, as the court may think fit and may direct in what manner any money authorised to be expended, and the costs of any transaction, are to be paid or borne as between capital and income.

(2) The court may, from time to time, rescind or vary any order made under this section or may make any new or further order.

(3) An application to the court under this section may be made by the trustees, or by any of them, or by any person beneficially interested under the trust.

(4) In this section, "transaction" includes any sale, exchange, assurance, grant, lease, partition, surrender, reconveyance, release, reservation, or other disposition, and any purchase or other acquisition, and any covenant, contract, or option, and any investment or application of capital, and any compromise or other dealing, or arrangement.

47A Jurisdiction of court to set aside flawed exercise of fiduciary power⁴⁵

(1) If the court, in relation to the exercise of a fiduciary power, is satisfied on an application by a person specified in subsection (5) that the conditions set out at subsection (2) are met, the court may—

- (a) set aside the exercise of the power, either in whole or in part, and either unconditionally or on such terms and subject to such conditions as the court may think fit; and
- (b) make such order consequent upon the setting aside of the exercise of the power as it thinks fit.

(2) The conditions referred to in subsection (1) are that—

- (a) in the exercise of the power, the person who holds the power did not take into account one or more considerations (whether of fact, law, or a combination of fact and law) that were relevant to the exercise of the power, or took into account one or more considerations that were irrelevant to the exercise of the power; and
- (b) but for his failure to take into account one or more such relevant considerations or his having taken into account one or more such irrelevant considerations, the person who holds the power —

- (i) would not have exercised the power;
- (ii) would have exercised the power, but on a different occasion to that on which it was exercised; or
- (iii) would have exercised the power, but in a different manner to that in which it was exercised.

(3) If and to the extent that the exercise of a power is set aside under this section, to that extent the exercise of the power shall be treated as never having occurred.

(4) The conditions set out in subsection (2) may be satisfied without it being alleged or proved that in the exercise of the power, the person who holds the power, or any adviser to such person, acted in breach of trust or in breach of duty.

(5) An application to the court under this section may be made by—

- (a) the person who holds the power;
- (b) where the power is conferred in respect of a trust or trust property, by any trustee of that trust, or by any person beneficially interested under that trust, or (in the case of a purpose trust) by any person appointed by or under the trust for the purposes of section 12B(1) of the Trusts (Special Provisions) Act 1989;
- (c) where the power is conferred in respect of a charitable trust or otherwise for a charitable purpose, the Attorney-General; or
- (d) with the leave of the court, any other person.

(6) No order may be made under subsection (1) which would prejudice a bona fide purchaser for value of any trust property without notice of the matters which allow the court to set aside the exercise of a power over or in relation thereto.

(7) The jurisdiction conferred upon the court by this section may be exercised by the court in respect of fiduciary powers, whether conferred or exercised before, on or after the commencement date of the Trustee Amendment Act 2014.

(8) In this section—

“fiduciary power” means any power that, when exercised, must be exercised for the benefit of or taking into account the interests of at least one person other than the person who holds the power; and

“power” includes a discretion as to how an obligation is performed;

“person who holds the power” includes any person on whom a power has been conferred, whether or not that power is exercisable by that person alone, and any person to whom the exercise of a power has been delegated.

[Section 47A inserted by 2014 : 28 s. 2 effective 29 July 2014]

48. Jurisdiction of court to vary trusts

(1) Subject to subsection (2), where property is held on any trusts or settlements arising under any will, settlement or other disposition, the court may if it thinks fit by order approve on behalf of -

- (a) any person having, directly or indirectly, an estate or interest, whether vested or contingent, under the trusts or settlements who by reason of infancy or other incapacity is incapable of assenting; or

- (b) any person (whether ascertained or not) who may become entitled, directly or indirectly, to an estate or interest under the trusts or settlements as being at a future date or on the happening of a future event a person of any specified description or a member of any specified class of persons so, however, that this paragraph shall not include any person who would be of that description, or a member of that class, as the case may be, if the said date had fallen or the said event had happened at the date of the application to the court; or
- (c) any person unborn; or
- (d) any person in respect of any discretionary interest of his under protective trusts where the interest of the principal beneficiary has not failed or determined, any arrangement (by whomsoever proposed, and whether or not there is any other person beneficially interested who is capable of assenting thereto) varying or revoking all or any of the trusts or settlements, or enlarging the powers of the trustees of managing or administering any of the property subject to the trusts or settlements.

(2) Except by virtue of subsection (1)(d) the court shall not approve an arrangement on behalf of any person unless the carrying out of the arrangement would be for the benefit of that person.

(3) In subsection (1), "protective trusts" means the trusts specified in section 25(1)(a) and (b) or any like trusts, "the principal beneficiary" has the same meaning as in section 25(1) and "discretionary interest" means an interest arising under the trust specified in section 25(1)(b) or any like trust.

(4) Nothing in this section shall be taken to limit the powers conferred by section 47.

49. Persons entitled to apply for orders

(1) An order under this Act for the appointment of a new trustee or concerning any estate or interest in land, stock, or thing in action subject to a trust, may be made on the application of any person beneficially interested in the land, stock, or thing in action, whether under disability or not, or on the application of any person duly appointed trustee thereof.

(2) An order under this Act concerning any estate or interest in land, stock, or thing in action subject to a mortgage may be made on the application of any person beneficially interested in the equity of redemption, whether under disability or not, or of any person interested in the money secured by the mortgage.

50. Power to give judgment in absence of a trustee

Where in any action the court is satisfied that diligent search has been made for any person who, in the character of trustee, is made a defendant in any action, to serve him with a process of the court, and that he cannot be found, the court may hear and determine the action and give judgment therein against that person in his character of a trustee as if he had been duly served, or had entered an appearance in the action, and had also appeared by his counsel at the hearing, but without prejudice to any interest he may have in the matters in question in the action in any other character.

51. Power to charge costs on trust estate

The court may order the costs and expenses of and incidental to any application for an order under this Act or for any order or declaration in respect of any property subject to a trust, or of and incidental to any such order or declaration, or any document executed or act performed in pursuance thereof, to be raised and paid out of the property in respect whereof the same is made or performed, or out of the income thereof, or to be borne and paid in such manner and by such persons as to the court may seem just.

52. Power to relieve trustee from personal liability

(1) If it appears to the court that a trustee, whether appointed by the court or otherwise, is or may be personally liable for any breach of trust, whether the transaction alleged to be a breach of trust occurred before, on or after 1 March 1975, but has acted honestly and reasonably, and ought fairly to be excused for the breach of trust and for omitting to obtain the directions of the court in the matter in which he committed such breach, then the court may relieve him either wholly or partly from personal liability for the same.

(2) In this section "trustee" includes a person who has ceased to be a trustee and the estate representative of a deceased trustee.

53. Power to make beneficiary indemnify for breach of trust

(1) Where a trustee commits a breach of trust at the instigation or request or with the consent in writing of a beneficiary, the court may, if it thinks fit, make such order as to the court seems just, for impounding all or any part of the estate or interest of the beneficiary in the trust estate by way of indemnity to the trustee or persons claiming through him.

(2) This section applies to breaches of trust committed as well before as on or after 1 March 1975.

PAYMENT INTO COURT54. Payment into court by trustees

(1) Trustees, or the majority of trustees, having in their hands or under their control money or securities belonging to a trust, may pay the same into court; and the same shall, subject to rules of court, be dealt with according to the orders of the court.

(2) The receipt or certificate of the proper officer shall be a sufficient discharge to trustees for the money or securities so paid into court.

(3) Where money or securities are vested in any persons as trustees, and the majority are desirous of paying the same into court, but the concurrence of the other or others cannot be obtained, the court may order the payment into court to be made by the majority without the concurrence of the other or others.

(4) Where any such money or securities are deposited with any bank, broker, or other depository, the court may order payment or delivery of the money or securities to the majority of the trustees for the purpose of payment into court.

(5) Every transfer payment and delivery made in pursuance of any such order shall be valid and take effect as if the same had been made on the authority or by the act of all the persons entitled to the money and securities so transferred, paid, or delivered.

54A. Civil penalty⁴⁶

(1) Where a non-professional trustee knowingly and wilfully contravenes section 13AA, the court may impose a civil penalty in the amount of twenty thousand dollars⁴⁷.

(2) A civil penalty levied pursuant to section 13AA shall be enforced as a civil debt.

(3) For the avoidance of doubt—

“court” shall have the same meaning as in section 1 of this Act.

(4) A non-professional trustee, being a recipient of a civil penalty under subsection (1), may appeal the imposition of the penalty within seven days of the order being issued by the court.

(5) Any appeal under subsection (4) shall be commenced by notice of motion filed within seven days of the notification of the decision of the court; and the Attorney-General shall be served with a copy of the notice.

[Section 54A inserted by 2017:35 s. 3 effective 3 November 2017; Section 54A subsection (1) amended by 2018:51 s. 14 effective 10 August 2018]

54B. Civil penalty - Chief Justice may make rules⁴⁸

(1) For the purposes of section 54A, the Chief Justice may make rules generally for regulating civil penalty proceedings under this Act and, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, may make rules in respect of any matter which he considers necessary for the purposes of any proceedings under this Act.

(2) Section 6 of the Statutory Instruments Act 1977 shall not apply to rules made under this section.

[Section 54B inserted by 2017:35 s. 3 effective 3 November 2017]

(2) Service effected by delivery pursuant to subsection (1)(a) or (d) shall have effect from the time of delivery.

(3) Service effected otherwise than by delivery shall be deemed to have been effected three days after the steps taken pursuant to any provisions of subsection (1) have been taken, unless and to the extent that the contrary is proved.

[Section 1A inserted by 2020:43 s. 2 effective 5 August 2020; amended by 2020:44 s. 2 effective 5 August 2020]

PART I - TRUSTS2. Trust described

(1) For the purpose of this part, the term “trust” refers to the legal relationship created, either inter vivos or on death, by a person, the settlor, when assets have been placed under the control of a trustee for the benefit of a beneficiary or for a specified purpose.

(2) A trust has the following characteristics:

- (a) the assets constitute a separate fund and are not a part of the trustee's own estate;

- (b) title to the trust stands in the name of the trustee or in the name of another person on behalf of the trustee;
- (c) the trustee has the power and the duty in respect of which he is accountable, to manage, employ or dispose of the assets in accordance with the terms of the trust and the special duties imposed upon him by law.

(3) The reservation or grant⁵⁶ by the settlor of certain rights and powers, and the fact that the trustee may himself have rights as a beneficiary, are not necessarily inconsistent with the existence of a trust.

[Section 2 subsection (3) amended by 2014:22 s. 2 effective 16 July 2014]

2A. Reserved powers^{57 58}

(1) Without prejudice to the generality of section 2(3), the reservation by the settlor to himself or grant to any other person in a trust instrument governed by the laws of Bermuda of any limited beneficial interest in the trust property whether of income or capital, or any or all of the powers specified in subsection (2) (or both such an interest and any or all of such powers) shall not —

- (a) invalidate the trust; or
- (b) prevent the trust taking effect according to its terms; or
- (c) cause any or all of the trust property to be part of the real estate or personal estate of the settlor for the purposes of the Wills Act 1988.

(2) The powers referred to in subsection (1) are—

- (a) in the case of a reservation to the settlor or other donor of trust property, power to revoke the trusts in whole or in part;
- (b) power to vary or amend the terms of a trust instrument or any of the trusts, purposes or powers arising thereunder in whole or in part;
- (c) a general, intermediate or special power to advance, appoint, pay, apply, distribute or transfer trust property (whether income or capital or both) or to give directions for the making of any such advancement, appointment, payment, application, distribution or transfer;
- (d) power to act as, or give binding directions as to the appointment or removal of, a director or an officer of any company wholly or partly owned by the trust or to direct the trustee as to the manner of exercising voting rights attaching to any of the shares held in such company;
- (e) power to give binding directions in connection with the purchase, retention, holding, sale or other commercial or investment dealings with trust property or any investment or reinvestment thereof or the exercise of any powers or rights arising from such trust property;
- (f) power to appoint, add, remove or replace any trustee, protector, enforcer or any other office holder or any advisor including any investment advisor or any investment manager;
- (g) power to add, remove or exclude any beneficiary, class of beneficiaries or purpose;
- (h) power to change the governing law and the forum for administration of the trust; and
- (i) power to restrict the exercise of any powers, discretions or functions of a trustee by requiring that they shall only be exercisable with the consent, or at the direction of, any person specified in the trust instrument.

(3) A trustee who—

- (a) has acted, or refrained from acting, in compliance with, or as a result of, a valid exercise of any of the powers set out in subsection (2), shall not, by reason only of such compliance, commit a breach of trust or other fiduciary or equitable duty; or
- (b) is or has been prevented from acting in accordance with any of the powers specified in subsection (2), or any exercise of those powers by reason of the provisions of any applicable law or because insufficient rights or powers are exercisable by the trustee in relation to the trust property, shall not, by reason only of such non-compliance or failure to act, commit a breach of trust or other fiduciary or equitable duty.

(4) Where a power to revoke, a general power of appointment or the present beneficial interest in respect of all or part of the trust property is reserved or granted to a person, a trust instrument may provide that for so long as the settlor, beneficiary or other holder of the power is not the sole trustee, the trustee shall owe no duty to any other person in relation to all or such part of the trust property and accordingly shall have no responsibility to any other person for acts or omissions occurring during that person's lifetime in respect of that property.

(5) No person other than a person in whom trust property or an interest in trust property is vested and who is formally appointed as a trustee, shall be or become a trustee by reason only of the reservation or grant of any of the powers set out in subsection (2).

(6) A trust instrument governed by the laws of Bermuda may provide that the reservation or grant of any of the powers set out in subsection (2) shall not impose a fiduciary duty on the holder of such powers.

(7) In relation to any trust governed by the laws of Bermuda created after the commencement date of the Trusts (Special Provisions) Amendment Act 2014, in the absence of any contrary provision of the trust—

- (a) in the case of the reservation by a settlor or the grant to a beneficiary of any of the powers specified in subsection (2), where so long as the holder of the power is not the sole trustee, such powers shall be personal and non-fiduciary; and
- (b) in any other case, such powers shall be fiduciary.

(8) Subject to any contrary provision herein, this section and section 2(3) apply to any trusts governed by the laws of Bermuda, whether created before, on or after the commencement date of the Trusts (Special Provisions) Amendment Act 2014, and to acts and omissions occurring while the trust was governed by the laws of Bermuda.

(9) [REPEALED]⁵⁹

[Section 2A inserted by 2014:22 s. 3 effective 16 July 2014; section 2A(9) repealed by 2020:43 s. 3 effective 5 August 2020]

(2) Where the law chosen under subsection (1) does not provide for trusts or the category of trusts involved, the choice shall not be effective and the law specified in section 6 applies.

6. No applicable law chosen

(1) Where no applicable law has been chosen, a trust shall be governed by the law with which it is most closely connected and in ascertaining the law with which a trust is most closely connected references shall be made in particular to -

- (b) the situs of the assets of the trust;
- (c) the place of residence or business of the trustee;
- (d) the objects of the trust and the places where they are to be fulfilled.

(2) A Bermuda trust may provide terms to change the law governing the trust from the law of Bermuda to a new governing law but such change is valid and effective only if the new governing law recognises the validity of the trust and the respective interests of the beneficiaries.^{60 61}

(3) A change in the law governing a trust shall not affect the legality or validity of or render any person liable for anything done before the change.

[Section 6(2) amended by 2020:43 s. 4 effective 5 August 2020]

7. Law governing validity and construction of trust

The law specified by section 5 or 6 shall govern the validity of the trust, its construction, its effects and the administration of the trust and in particular the law shall govern -

9. Jurisdiction of Supreme Court⁶²

(1) The Supreme Court has jurisdiction to hear and determine any claim concerning the validity, construction, effects or administration (including in respect of any of the matters referred to in section 7(a) – (j)) of—

- (a) a Bermuda trust; or
- (b) a foreign trust to which subsection (2) applies.

(2) A foreign trust referred to in subsection (1)(b), is a trust where—

PERPETUITIES AND ACCUMULATIONS ACT 1989

1989:60

[28 December 1989]

WHEREAS it is expedient to modify the law relating to the avoidance of future interests in property on grounds of remoteness and governing accumulations of income from property and to amend the Pension Trust Funds Act 1966:

[words of enactment omitted]

1. Short title and commencement

This Act may be cited as the Perpetuities and Accumulations Act 1989 and shall come into operation on such date as the Premier may appoint by notice published in the Gazette.

PRELIMINARY2. Interpretation

(1) In this Act unless the context otherwise requires—

"disposition" includes the conferring of a power of appointment and any other disposition of an interest in or right over property, and references to the interest disposed of shall be construed accordingly;

"in being" means living or en ventre sa mere;

"power of appointment" includes any discretionary power to create or transfer⁶⁸ a beneficial interest in property without the furnishing of valuable consideration;

"will" includes a codicil.

(2) For the purposes of this Act a disposition contained in a will shall be deemed to be made at the death of the testator.

(3) For the purposes of this Act a person shall be treated as a member of the class if in his case all the conditions identifying a member of the class are satisfied, and shall be treated as a potential member if in his case some only of those conditions are satisfied but there is a possibility that the remainder will in time be satisfied.

[Section 2 subsection (1) amended by 2009:23 s.10 effective 1 August 2009]

PERPETUITIES3. Power to specify perpetuity period

(1) Subject to section 11(3) and subsection (2) of this section, where the instrument by which any disposition is made so provides, the perpetuity period applicable to the disposition under the rule against perpetuities, instead of being of any other duration, shall be of a duration equal to such number of years not exceeding one hundred as is specified in that behalf in the instrument.

(2) Subsection (1) shall not have effect where the disposition is made in exercise of a special power of appointment, but where a period is specified under that subsection in the instrument creating such a power the period shall apply in relation to any disposition under the power as it applies in relation to the power itself.

4. Presumptions and evidence as to future parenthood

(1) Where in any proceedings there arises on the rule against perpetuities a question which turns on the ability of a person to have a child at some future time, then—

- (a) subject to paragraph (b), it shall be presumed that a male can have a child at the age of fourteen years or over, but not under that age, and that a female can have a child at the age of twelve years or over, but not under that age or over the age of fifty-five years; but
- (b) in the case of a living person evidence may be given to show that he or she will or will not be able to have a child at the time in question.

(2) Where an such question referred to in subsection (1) is decided by treating a person as unable to have a child at a particular time, and he or she does so, the Supreme Court may make such order as it thinks fit for placing the persons interested in the property comprised in the disposition, so far as may be just, in the position they would have held if the question had not been so decided.

(3) Subject to subsection (2), where any such question referred to in subsection (1) is decided in relation to a disposition by treating a person as able or unable to have a child at a particular time, then he or she shall be so treated for the purpose of any question which may arise on the rule against perpetuities in relation to the same disposition in any subsequent proceedings.

(4) In the provisions of this section references to having a child are references to begetting or giving birth to a child, but those provisions (except subsection (1)(b)) shall apply in relation to the possibility that a person will at any time have a child by adoption, legitimation or other means as they apply to his or her ability at that time to beget or give birth to a child.

5. Uncertainty as to remoteness

(1) Where, apart from the provisions of this section and sections 6 and 7, a disposition would be void on the ground that the interest disposed of might not become vested until too remote a time, the disposition shall be treated, until such time (if any) as it becomes established that the vesting must occur, if at all, after the end of the perpetuity period, as if the disposition were not subject to the rule against perpetuities; and its becoming so established shall not affect the validity of anything previously done in relation to the interest disposed of by way of advancement, application of intermediate income or otherwise.

(2) Where, apart from the provisions of subsection (1), a disposition consisting of the conferring of a general power of appointment would be void on the ground that the power might not become exercisable until too remote a time, the disposition shall be treated, until such time (if any) as it becomes established that the power will not be exercisable within the perpetuity period, as if the disposition were not subject to the rule against perpetuities.

(3) Where, apart from the provisions of subsection (1), a disposition consisting of the conferring of any power, option or other right would be void on the ground that the right might be exercised at too remote a time, the disposition shall be treated as regards any exercise of the right within the perpetuity period as if it were not subject to the rule against perpetuities and, subject to the said provisions, shall be treated as void for remoteness only if, and so far as, the right is not fully exercised within that period.

(4) Where this section applies to a disposition and the duration of the perpetuity period is not determined by virtue of section 3 or 11(3), it shall be determined as follows:

- (a) where any persons falling within subsection (5) are individuals in being and ascertainable at the commencement of the perpetuity period the duration of the period shall be determined by reference to their lives and no others, but so that the lives of any description of persons falling within paragraph (b) or (c) of that subsection shall be disregarded if the number of persons of that description is such as to render it impracticable to ascertain the date of death of the survivor;

(b) where there are no lives under paragraph 9(a) the period shall be twenty-one years.

(5) The said persons are as follows:

(a) the person by whom the disposition was made;

(b) a person to whom or in whose favour the disposition was made, that is to say—

(i) in the case of a disposition to a class of persons, any member or potential member of the class;

(ii) in the case of an individual disposition to a person taking only on certain conditions being satisfied, any person as to whom some of the conditions are satisfied and the remainder may in time be satisfied;

(iii) in the case of a special power of appointment exercisable in favour of members of a class, any member or potential member of the class;

(iv) in the case of a special power of appointment exercisable in favour of one person only, that person or, where the object of the power is ascertainable only on certain conditions being satisfied, any person as to whom some of the conditions are satisfied and the remainder may in time be satisfied;

(v) in the case of any power, option or other right, the person on whom the right is conferred;

(c) a person having a child or grandchild within subparagraphs (i) to (iv) of paragraph (b), or any of whose children or grandchildren, if subsequently born, would by virtue of his or her descent fall within those sub-paragraphs;

(d) any person on the failure or determination of whose prior interest the disposition is limited to take effect.

6. Reduction of age and exclusion of class members to avoid remoteness

(1) Where a disposition is limited by reference to the attainment by any person or persons of a specified age exceeding twenty-one years, and it is apparent at the time the disposition is made or becomes apparent at a subsequent time—

(a) that the disposition would, apart from this section, be void for remoteness, but

(b) that it would not be so void if the specified age had been twenty-one years, the disposition shall be treated for all purposes as if, instead of being limited by reference to the age in fact specified, it had been limited by reference to the age nearest to that age which would, if specified instead, have prevented the disposition from being so void.

(2) Where in the case of any disposition different ages exceeding twenty-one years are specified in relation to different persons—

(a) the reference in paragraph (b) of subsection (1)(b) to the specified age shall be construed as a reference to all the specified ages, and

(b) that subsection shall operate to reduce each such age so far as is necessary to save the disposition from being void for remoteness.

(3) Where the inclusion of any persons, being potential members of a class or unborn persons who at birth would become members or potential members of the class, prevents the foregoing provisions of this section from operating to save disposition from being void for remoteness, those persons shall thenceforth be deemed for all purposes of the disposition to be excluded from the class, and the said provisions shall thereupon have effect accordingly.

(4) Where, in the case of a disposition to which subsection (3) does not apply, it is apparent at the time the disposition is made or be-comes apparent at a subsequent time that, apart from this subsection, the inclusion of any persons, being potential members of a class or un-born persons who at birth would become members or potential members of the class, would cause the disposition to be treated as void for remoteness, those persons shall, unless their exclusion would exhaust the class, thenceforth be deemed for all the purposes of the disposition to be excluded from the class.

(5) Where this section has effect in relation to a disposition to which section 5 applies, the operation of this section shall not affect the validity of anything previously done in relation to the interest disposed of by way of advancement, application of intermediate income or otherwise.

[NB Section 6(1), 6(1)(b) and 6(2) references to 21 years not amended by 2001:20 – see s.6(3) & Sch 1 to that Act.]

7. Condition relating to death of surviving spouse

Where a disposition is limited by reference to the time of death of the survivor of a person in being at the commencement of the perpetuity period and any spouse of that person, and that time has not arrived at the end of the perpetuity period, the disposition shall be treated for all purposes, where to do so would save it from being void for remoteness, as if it had instead been limited by reference to the time immediately before the end of that period.

8. Saving and acceleration of expectant interests

A disposition shall not be treated as void for remoteness by reason only that the interest disposed of is ulterior to and dependent upon an interest under a disposition which is so void, and the vesting of an interest shall not be prevented from being accelerated on the failure of a prior interest by reason only that the failure arises because of remote-ness.

9. Powers of appointment

For the purposes of the rule against perpetuities, a power of appointment shall be treated as a special power unless—

- (a) in the instrument creating the power it is expressed to be exercisable by one person only, and
- (b) it could, at all times during its currency when that per-son is of full age and capacity, be exercised by him so as immediately to transfer to himself the whole of the interest governed by the power without the consent of any other person or compliance with any other condition, not being a formal condition relating only to the mode of exercise of the power:

Provided that for the purpose of determining whether a disposition made under a power of appointment exercisable by will only is void for remoteness, the power shall be treated as a general power where it would have fallen to be so treated if exercisable by deed.

10. Administrative powers of trustees

(1) The rule against perpetuities shall not operate to invalidate a power conferred on trustees or other persons to sell, lease, exchange or otherwise dispose of any property for full consideration, or to do any other act in the administration (as opposed to the distribution) of any property, and shall not prevent the payment to trustees of [sic] other persons of reasonable remuneration for their services.

(2) Subsection (1) shall apply for the purpose of enabling a power to be exercised at any time after the commencement of this Act notwithstanding that the power is conferred by an instrument which took effect before the commencement.

11. Options relating to land

(1) The rule against perpetuities shall not apply to a disposition consisting of the conferring of an option to acquire for valuable consideration an interest reversionary (whether directly or indirectly) on the term of a lease if—

- (a) the option is exercisable only by the lessee or his successors in title, and
- (b) it ceases to be exercisable at or before the expiration of one year following the determination of the lease.

(2) This subsection applies in relation to an agreement for a lease as it applies in relation to a lease, and "lessee" shall be construed accordingly.

(3) In the case of a disposition consisting of the conferring of an option to acquire for valuable consideration any interest in land, the perpetuity period under the rule against perpetuities shall be twenty-one years, and section 3 does not apply; however, this subsection does not apply to a right of pre-emption conferred on a government or municipal authority or statutory corporation in respect of land used or to be used for religious purposes where the right becomes exercisable only if the land ceases to be used for such purposes.

12. Avoidance of contractual and other rights in cases of remoteness

Where a disposition inter vivos would fall to be treated as void for remoteness if the rights and duties thereunder were capable of transmission to persons other than the original parties and had been so transmitted, it shall be treated as void as between the person by whom it was made and the person to whom or in whose favour it was made or any successor of his, and no remedy shall lie in contract or otherwise for giving effect to it or making restitution for its lack of effect.

13. Possibilities of resulting trust, conditions subsequent, exceptions and reservations

(1) In the case of a possibility of a resulting trust on the de-termination of any determinable interest in property the rule against perpetuities shall apply in relation to the provision causing the interest to be determinable as it would apply if that provision were expressed in the form of a condition subsequent giving rise, on breach thereof, to a right of re-entry or an equivalent right in the case of property other than land, and where the provision falls to be treated as void for remoteness the determinable interest shall become an absolute interest.

(2) Where a disposition is subject to any such provision, or to any such condition subsequent, or to any exception or reservation, the disposition shall be treated for the purposes of this Act as including a separate disposition of any rights arising by virtue of the provision, condition subsequent, exception or reservation.

14. Restrictions on perpetuity rule

The rule of law relating to perpetuities does not apply and shall be deemed never to have applied—

- (a) to any power to take possession of land or the income thereof given by way of indemnity against a rent, whether charged upon or payable in respect of any part of that land or not; or

- (b) to any grant, exception, or reservation of any right of entry on, or user of, the surface of land or of any easements, rights, or privileges over or under land for the purpose of—
- (i) executing repairs, alterations, or additions to any adjoining land, or the buildings and erections thereon;
 - (ii) constructing, laying down, altering, repairing, renewing, cleansing and maintaining any works.

16. Right to stop accumulations

Section 4 applies to any question as to the right of beneficiaries to put an end to accumulations of income under any disposition as it applies to questions arising on the rule against perpetuities.

17. Application

(1) Subject to section 12A of the Trusts (Special Provisions) Act 1989⁷⁰, nothing in this Act shall affect the operation of the rule of law rendering void for remoteness certain dispositions under which property is limited to be applied for purposes other than the benefit of any person or class of persons in cases where the property may be so applied after the end of the perpetuity period.

(2) This Act shall apply (except as provided in section 10(2)) only in relation to instruments taking effect after the commencement of this Act, and in the case of an instrument made in the exercise of a special power of appointment shall apply only where the instrument creating the power takes effect after that commencement; however, section 9 shall apply in all cases for construing the foregoing reference to a special power of appointment.

[This Act was brought into operation on 31 January 1990 by BR 8/1990]

(3) This Act shall apply in relation to a disposition made otherwise than by an instrument as if the disposition had been contained in an instrument taking effect when the disposition was made.

BERMUDA

PERPETUITIES AND ACCUMULATIONS ACT 20092009:23

[Date of Assent: 19 June 2009]

[Operative Date: 1 August 2009]

WHEREAS it is expedient to limit the application of the rule against perpetuities, to codify the rule as it applies to charities, and to amend the law relating to accumulations of income:

Be it enacted by The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and the House of Assembly of Bermuda, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. Short title

This Act may be cited as the Perpetuities and Accumulations Act 2009.

2. Interpretation

In this Act—

“commencement day” means 1 August 2009;⁷¹

“power of appointment” includes any discretionary power to create or transfer a beneficial interest in property without the provision of valuable consideration;

“the rule against perpetuities”—

(a) means the rule of law by that name, also known as the rule against remoteness of vesting, which restricts the time within which future interests in property must either vest or take effect, or within which certain powers may be exercisable; and

(b) includes any other rule of law which limits the period during which income may be accumulated or for which capital may remain unexpended or inalienable;

“will” includes a testament, a codicil, an appointment by will or by writing in the nature of a will in exercise of a power, and any other testamentary disposition.

3. Application of rule against perpetuities limited to land in Bermuda

(1) In relation to instruments taking effect on or after the commencement day, the rule against perpetuities applies (and applies only) as provided by this section.

(2) If an instrument limits property in trust so as to create successive estates or interests, the rule against perpetuities applies to each of the estates or interests only to the extent that the property is land in Bermuda.

(3) If an instrument limits property in trust so as to create an estate or interest which is subject to a condition precedent and which is not one of successive estates or interests, the rule against perpetuities applies to the estate or interest only to the extent that the property is land in Bermuda.

(4) If an instrument limits property in trust so as to create an estate or interest which is subject to a condition subsequent, the rule against perpetuities applies to any right of re-entry exercisable if the condition is broken only to the extent that the property is land in Bermuda.

(5) If an instrument creates a power of appointment, the rule against perpetuities applies to the power only to the extent that it is exercisable over land in Bermuda.

- (6) In this section “instrument” does not include a will executed before the commencement day.
- (7) For the avoidance of doubt, the reference to land in Bermuda does not include—
 - (a) the income from any land in Bermuda, or
 - (b) the proceeds of sale of any land in Bermuda.

4 Court order declaring that rule against perpetuities does not apply to certain instruments⁷²

- (1) This section applies in relation to an instrument which takes effect—
 - (a) before the commencement day; or
 - (b) on or after the commencement day but to which section 3 does not apply to limit the application of the rule against perpetuities.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3), the Supreme Court may, on an application made by the trustee or trustees of an instrument to which this section applies, make an order on such terms as it thinks fit declaring that—
 - (a) the rule against perpetuities; or
 - (b) any other similar rule of law that may limit or restrict the time under which property may be held in or subject to any trust, shall not apply to such instrument and the property held thereunder.

(3) An order under subsection (2) may not be made to the extent that it would affect the residual application of the rule against perpetuities as provided by section 3 if the instrument had been one to which section 3 applies (so that the rule against perpetuities will continue to apply to all instruments to the extent that the property is land in Bermuda as provided by section 3).

- (4) The terms upon which an order under subsection (2) may be made include (but are not limited to), terms—
 - (a) extending the duration of a trust;
 - (b) extending the time within which an interest in property must vest or take effect;
 - (c) extending the time within which certain powers are exercisable;
 - (d) providing that anything done by any person before the order is made on the basis that the instrument was void by virtue of the application of the rule against perpetuities or other similar rule of law shall have effect as if the order had not been made;
 - (e) protecting or preserving the interest of any person in trust property where such interest will or may be defeated or its vesting in possession deferred by virtue or in consequence of the terms of any order made under this section;
 - (f) varying or deleting any provision of the trust which restricts (to or by reference to the perpetuity period or limitation on duration applicable to the trust) the exercise of any power arising under or in consequence of the instrument;
 - (g) providing that the order shall be deemed always to have applied to the instrument.

(5) An application under subsection (2) shall be made by originating summons and the Rules of the Supreme Court applicable to applications under the Trustee Act 1975 shall, so far as is appropriate, apply.

(6) In subsection (4)(e), “interest” includes an interest arising by virtue or in consequence of the disposition being void as a result of the application of the rule against perpetuities to that disposition.

[Section 4 repealed and replaced by 2015:45 s. 3 effective 11 December 2015]

5. Perpetuities: codification of rule relating to charities

For the avoidance of doubt, the rule against perpetuities does not apply—

- (a) to an estate or interest created so as to vest in a charity on the occurrence of an event, or
- (b) to a right exercisable by a charity on the occurrence of an event, if, immediately before the occurrence of the event, an estate or interest in the property concerned is vested in another charity.

6. Accumulations: repeal of restrictions

Section 15 of the Perpetuities and Accumulations Act 1989 (accumulations of income) is repealed in relation to instruments taking effect on or after the commencement day.

7. Accumulations by charitable and purpose trusts

(1) This section applies to an instrument to the extent that it provides for property to be held on trust for charitable or non-charitable purposes.

(2) The instrument may impose on the trustees a duty, or confer on them a power, to accumulate income for any duration (including an unlimited duration), whether or not the duty or power extends to income produced by the investment of income previously accumulated.

(3) This section applies in relation to an instrument taking effect before, on or after the commencement day.

8. Provision made otherwise than by instrument

If provision is made in relation to property otherwise than by an instrument, this Act applies as if the provision were contained in an instrument taking effect on the making of the provision.

9. Crown application

This Act binds the Crown.

10. Consequential amendment

In the definition of “power of appointment” in section 2 of the Perpetuities and Accumulations Act 1989, delete “transfer” and substitute “create or transfer”.

11. Repeal

Section 12A(5) of the Trusts (Special Provisions) Act 1989 (which applies the rule against perpetuities to a purpose trust) is repealed.

12. Commencement

This Act comes into operation on 1st August 2009.

TRUSTS (REGULATION OF TRUST BUSINESS) (REPORTING ACCOUNTANTS) (FACTS AND MATTERS OF MATERIAL SIGNIFICANCE) REGULATIONS 2006

BR 61/2006

[Operative Date: 15 July 2006]

The Minister of Finance, in exercise of the powers conferred by section 57(1) of the Trusts (Regulation of Trust Business) Act 2001 and acting on the advice of the Authority, makes the following Regulations:

1. Citation and commencement

These Regulations may be cited as the Trusts (Regulation of Trust Business) (Reporting Accountants) (Facts and Matters of Material Significance) Regulations 2006 and shall come into operation on the 15th day of July, 2006.

2. Interpretation

In these Regulations -

“Act” means the Trusts (Regulation of Trust Business) Act 2001;

“reporting accountant” means an auditor or an accountant who, under section 36(2) or 45(2A) of the Act as the case may be, is under a duty to give notice to the Authority of specified facts or matters.

3. Facts and matters of material significance

- (1) For the purposes of sections 36(2) and 45(2A) of the Act, where a reporting accountant -
- (a) identifies a material misstatement in the financial statements resulting from fraud, error or illegal acts or the consequences of them;
 - (b) concludes that there is substantial doubt as to the ability of the undertaking to continue as a going concern for a period of one year from the balance sheet date;
 - (c) identifies adjustments to the financial statements which individually or in aggregate indicate to him that the previous year’s audited annual financial statements or the current year’s unaudited interim financial statements, prepared according to generally accepted accounting principles issued to the shareholders were materially misstated;
 - (d) identifies a material weakness in internal control;
 - (e) has unresolved disagreements with management pertaining to the application of generally accepted accounting principles that could reasonably be expected to lead in the future to material misstatements of the annual or interim financial statements, prepared according to generally accepted accounting principles to be issued to the shareholders in the ensuing financial year;
 - (f) identifies any evidence of deliberate attempts by a chief executive or other senior executive to mislead the Authority through the provision of materially false or misleading information; or

- (g) identifies evidence of fraud or attempted fraud by a chief executive or other senior executive, or has concerns of such a serious nature as to damage materially his confidence in the integrity of the senior management of the institution, then those facts and matters are of material significance for the discharge, in relation to the undertaking, of the Authority's functions under the Act.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(d), "material weakness in internal control" means a deficiency in which the design or operation of one or more of the internal control components of the institution does not reduce to a relatively low level the risk that misstatements caused by error or fraud in amounts that would be material in relation to the financial statements being audited may occur and fail to be detected within a timely period by employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions.
