We're Hiring

COMMERCIAL LITIGATION BARRISTER/SOLICITOR, BVI

Conyers Dill & Pearman is an international offshore law firm that specializes in company & commercial law, commercial litigation and private client advice. The Firm is currently seeking a Barrister/Solicitor for the Litigation Department, to provide efficient, courteous and responsive services.

The Litigation team in the BVI office is independently and consistently ranked in tier 1 by all leading directories. It is regularly engaged in the largest and most complex disputes in the jurisdiction before the BVI Commercial Court and Court of Appeal. The firm seeks to appoint two additional suitably-qualified Barristers or Solicitors of the highest academic background with training in and experience of large commercial dispute resolution matters, including preferably, significant cross-border elements, shareholder disputes and insolvency proceedings with commensurate advocacy experience. The range of PQE qualification sought is 2-5 years and the successful candidate will be expected to advise on and act in respect of a range of high value commercial litigation matters which will include company, commercial, asset tracing and insolvency.

If you are interested in working for a well-established, dynamic and successful law firm, then this is an opportunity not to be missed.
