["relevant offence" substituted by 2000:35 s. 2(1) effective 1 June 2001; "relevant offence" amended by 2017:31 s. 2 effective 6 October 2017]

4. Meaning of "property", "realisable property" etc

(1) In this Act-

"property" means money and all other property, movable or immovable, including things in action and other intangible or incorporeal property; and

"interest", in relation to property, includes right.

(2) For the purposes of this Act-

- (a) property is held by any person if he holds any interest in it;
- (b) references to property held by a person include a reference to property vested in his trustee in bankruptcy or liquidator;
- (c) references to an interest held in property by a person beneficially include a reference to an interest which would be held by him beneficially if the property were not so vested in his trustee in bankruptcy or liquidator; and
- (d) property is transferred by one person to another if the first person transfers or grants to the other any interest in the property.

- (3) In this Act, "realisable property" means-
- (a) any property held by the defendant (other than property in respect of which there is in force a forfeiture order under section 37 of the Misuse of Drugs Act 1972); and
 - (b) any property held by a person to whom the defendant has, directly or indirectly, made a gift caught by this Act.
- (4) For the purposes of this Act, the amount that might be realised at the time a confiscation order is made against the defendant shall be-
- (a) the total of the values at that time of all the realisable property held by the defendant; less
 - (b) where there are obligations having priority at that time, the total amounts payable in pursuance of such obligations,
- together with the total of the values at that time of all gifts caught by this Act.
- (5) For the purposes of subsection (4), an obligation has priority at any time if it is an obligation of the defendant-
- (a) to pay an amount due in respect of a fine, or other order imposed or made on conviction of an offence, where the fine was imposed or order made before the confiscation order; or
 - (b) to pay any sum which would be included among the preferential debts in the defendant's bankruptcy commencing on the date of the confiscation order or winding up under an order of the court made on that date.
- (6) For the purposes of subsection (5)(b), "preferential debts"-
- (a) in relation to bankruptcy, means the debts to be paid in priority under section 39 of the Bankruptcy Act 1989 (assuming the date of the confiscation order to be the date of the receiving order); and
 - (b) in relation to winding up, means the debts to be paid in priority in accordance with section 236 of the Companies Act 1981 (assuming the date of the confiscation order to be the date of the winding up).

5. Value of property

- (1) Subject to the following subsections and section 6, for the purposes of this Act, the value of property (other than cash) in relation to any person holding the property shall be its market value, except that where any other person holds an interest in the property, the value shall be-
- (a) the market value of the first-mentioned person's beneficial interest in the property, less
 - (b) the amount required to discharge any incumbrance (other than a charging order) on that interest.
- (2) Subject to section 6(3), references in this Act to the value at any time (referred to in subsection (3) as the "material time") of a gift caught by this Act are references to-
- (a) the value of the gift to the recipient when he received it adjusted to take account of subsequent changes in the value of money; or
 - (b) where subsection (3) applies, the value mentioned therein,
- whichever is the greater.
- (3) Subject to section 6(3), if at the material time the recipient holds-

- (a) the property which he received (not being cash); or
- (b) property which, in whole or in part, directly or indirectly represents in his hands the property which he received, the value referred to in subsection (2)(b) shall be the value to him at the material time of the property mentioned in paragraph (a) or as the case may be, of the property mentioned in paragraph (b) so far as it so represents the property which he received, but disregarding in either case any charging order.

6. Gifts caught by this Act

(1) In relation to a drug trafficking offence, a gift (including a gift made before the commencement of this Act) is caught by this Act if-

- (a) it was made by the defendant at any time since the beginning of the period of six years ending-
 - (i) when the proceedings for the drug trafficking offence were instituted against him, or
 - (ii) where no such proceedings have been instituted, when an application for a charging or restraint order is made under section 28 or 29; or
- (b) it was made by the defendant at any time and was a gift of property-
 - (i) received by the defendant in connection with drug trafficking carried on by him or another person, or
 - (ii) which in whole or in part directly or indirectly represented in the defendant's hands property received by him in that connection.

(2) In relation to a relevant offence, a gift (including a gift made before the commencement of this Act) is caught by this Act if-

- (a) it was made by the defendant at any time since the commission of the relevant offence, or, if more than one, the earliest of the offences to which the proceedings relate (including any offence which the court takes into consideration in determining his sentence); and
- (b) the court considers it appropriate in all the circumstances to take the gift into account.

(3) For the purposes of this Act-

- (a) the circumstances in which the defendant is to be treated as making a gift include those where he transfers property to another person, directly or indirectly, for a consideration the value of which is significantly less than the value of the consideration provided by the defendant; and
- (b) in those circumstances, this section and section 5 shall apply as if the defendant had made a gift of such share in the property as bears to the whole property the same proportion as the difference between the values referred to in paragraph (a) bears to the value of the consideration provided by the defendant.

PART II - CONFISCATION ORDERS

CONFISCATION ORDERS

9. Confiscation orders³⁰

- (1) Where a defendant appears before the Supreme Court to be sentenced for one or more drug trafficking offences or relevant offences, the court shall proceed under this section—
- (a) on the application of the Director of Public Prosecutions; or

- (b) of its own motion where it considers it appropriate to do so.
- (2) The court shall first determine whether the defendant has benefited from criminal conduct.
- (3) For the purposes of this Act, a person has benefited from criminal conduct if he has at any time (whether before or after the commencement of this Act)—
 - (a) received any payment or other reward in connection with his or another person's criminal conduct;
 - (b) obtained property as a result of or in connection with his or another person's criminal conduct; or
 - (c) derived a pecuniary advantage as a result of or in connection with his or another person's criminal conduct.
- (4) If the court determines that he has so benefited, it shall, before sentencing or otherwise dealing with him in respect of the offence or (as the case may be) any of the offences concerned, make a confiscation order and determine in accordance with section 15 the amount to be recovered in his case under the order.
- (5) The court shall then, in respect of the offence or offences concerned—
 - (a) order the defendant to pay the amount of the confiscation order within such period as it may specify; and
 - (b) take into account the confiscation order before—
 - (i) imposing any fine on him;
 - (ii) making any other order involving any payment by him; and
 - (iii) making any order under section 37 of the Misuse of Drugs Act 1972 (forfeiture); but
 - (c) subject to paragraph (b), leave the confiscation order out of account in determining the appropriate sentence or other manner of dealing with the defendant.

[section 9 amended by 2007:25 s.20 effective 15 November 2008; repealed and replaced by 2015:53 s. 2 effective 1 January 2016]

10. Confiscation orders: relevant offences

[REPEALED by 2015:53 s. 2]³¹

[Section 10 amended by 2007:25 s.20 effective 15 November 2008; repealed by 2015 : 53 s. 2 effective 1 January 2016]

11. Postponed determinations

- (1) Where the court is proceeding under section 9³², but considers that it needs more information before-
 - (a) determining whether the defendant has benefited as mentioned in the section in question, or
 - (b) determining the amount to be recovered from him under a confiscation order, it may, for the purpose of enabling that information to be obtained, postpone making the determination for such period as it may specify.
- (2) More than one postponement may be made under subsection (1).

(3) Unless satisfied that there are exceptional circumstances, the court shall not specify a period under subsection (1) which, by itself or taken together with any other postponement under this section, exceeds six months from the date of conviction.

(4) Where the defendant appeals against his conviction, the court may on that account—

- (a) postpone making either or both of the determinations mentioned in subsection (1) for such period as it may specify; or
- (b) where it has exercised its powers to postpone, extend the specified period.

(5) A postponement or extension under subsection (1) or (4) may be made on the application of the Director of Public Prosecutions³³ or the defence or by the court of its own motion.

(6) Unless the court is satisfied there are exceptional circumstances, any postponement or extension under subsection (4) shall not extend beyond three months after the appeal is determined or otherwise disposed of.

(7) Where the court exercises its power under this section it may nevertheless proceed to sentence the defendant in respect of the offence in question or any such offences; and on making a postponed confiscation order by virtue of this section it may vary any fine or other order involving payment imposed on the defendant in accordance with subsection (5)(b) of section 9³⁴.

[section 11 amended by 2007:25 s.20 effective 15 November 2008; amended by 2015:53 s. 2 effective 1 January 2016]

12. Assessing the proceeds of criminal conduct³⁵

(1) For the purposes of this Act—

- (a) any payments or other rewards received, property obtained or pecuniary advantage derived by a person at any time (whether before or after the commencement of this Act) as a result of or in connection with criminal conduct carried on by him or another person are his proceeds of criminal conduct; and
- (b) the value of his proceeds of criminal conduct is the aggregate of the values of the payments or other rewards, property and pecuniary advantage.

(2) Subject to subsections (5) and (6), the court shall make the required assumptions for the purpose—

- (a) of determining whether the defendant has benefited from criminal conduct; and
- (b) if he has, of determining the value of his proceeds of criminal conduct.

(3) The required assumptions are—

- (a) that any property appearing to the court—
 - (i) to have been held by the defendant at any time since his conviction; or
 - (ii) to have been transferred to him at any time since the beginning of the period of six years ending when the proceedings were instituted against him, was received by him as a payment or reward, property or a pecuniary advantage in connection with criminal conduct carried on by him;

- (b) that any expenditure of his since the beginning of that period was met out of payments received by him in connection with criminal conduct carried on by him;
- (c) that, for the purpose of valuing any property received or assumed to have been received by him at any time as such a reward, he received the property free of other interests in it.

(4) For the purposes of this Act, if a person derives a pecuniary advantage as a result of or in connection with the commission of an offence, he is to be treated as if he had obtained instead a sum of money equal to the value of the pecuniary advantage.

(5) The court shall not make any of the required assumptions in relation to any particular property or expenditure if—

- (a) that assumption is shown to be incorrect in the defendant's case; or
- (b) the court is satisfied that there would be a serious risk of injustice in the defendant's case if that assumption were to be made, and where the court, by virtue of this subsection, does not make one of the required assumptions it shall state its reasons.

(6) For the purpose of assessing the value of the proceeds derived by the defendant from criminal conduct in a case where a confiscation order has previously been made against him (under this Act or the Drug Trafficking Suppression Act 1988), the court shall leave out of account any such proceeds that are shown to the court to have been taken into account in determining the amount to be recovered under the previous order.

[Section 12 repealed and replaced by 2015:53 s. 3 effective 1 January 2016]

13. Statements

(1) Where the Director of Public Prosecutions³⁶ asks the court to proceed under section 9³⁷ he shall give the court, within such period as it may direct, a statement (a "prosecutor's statement") of matters which he considers relevant in connection with-

- (a) determining whether the defendant has benefited from criminal conduct³⁸; or
- (b) assessing the value of his proceeds of criminal conduct.³⁹

(2) Where the court proceeds under section 9⁴⁰ without the Director of Public Prosecutions⁴¹ having asked it to do so, it may require him to give it a prosecutor's statement, within such period as it may direct.

(3) Where a prosecutor's statement has been given-

- (a) the Director of Public Prosecutions⁴² may at any time give the court a further such statement; and
- (b) the court may at any time require him to give it a further such statement, within such period as it may direct.

(4) Where any prosecutor's statement has been given and the court is satisfied that it has been served on the defendant, it may require the defendant, within such period as it may direct-

- (a) to indicate the extent to which he accepts the allegations in the statement; and
- (b) so far as he does not accept any such allegation, to give particulars of any matters on which he proposes to rely;

and the court may for the purposes of the determination and assessment mentioned in subsection (1) treat any acceptance by the defendant as conclusive of the matters to which it relates.

(5) To the extent that the defendant fails in any respect to comply with a requirement under subsection (4), he may be treated for the purposes of this section as accepting every allegation in the statement.

(6) Where-

(a) there is tendered to the court by the defendant a statement as to any matters relevant to determining the amount that might be realised at the time the confiscation order is made; and

(b) the Director of Public Prosecutions⁴³ accepts to any extent any allegation in the statement, the court may, for the purposes of that determination, treat that acceptance as conclusive of the matters to which it relates.

(7) An allegation may be accepted or a matter indicated for the purposes of this section either orally before the court or in writing.

(8) No acceptance by the defendant under this section that proceeds have been derived by him from criminal conduct⁴⁴ shall be admissible in evidence in any proceedings for an offence.

[section 13 amended by 2007:25 s.20 effective 15 November 2008; subsections (1) and (8) amended by 2015:53 s. 4 effective 1 January 2016]

14. Provision of information by defendant

(1) For the purpose of obtaining information to assist it in carrying out its functions in relation to making a confiscation order, the court may order the defendant to give it such information in such manner and before such date as may be specified in the order.

(2) If the defendant fails without reasonable excuse to comply with any order under this section, the court may draw such inference from that failure as it considers appropriate.

(3) Where the Director of Public Prosecutions⁴⁵ accepts to any extent any allegation made by the defendant in giving to the court information required under this section, the court may treat that acceptance as conclusive of the matters to which it relates.

[section 14 amended by 2007:25 s.20 effective 15 November 2008]

15. Amount to be recovered

(1) Subject to subsection (3), the amount to be recovered under a confiscation order shall be the amount the court assesses to be the value of the defendant's proceeds of criminal conduct.⁴⁶

(2) If the court is satisfied as to any matter relevant for determining the amount that might be realised at the time the confiscation order is made (whether by reason of the acceptance of an allegation made in a statement given under section 13 or made in the giving of information under section 14 or otherwise), the court may issue a certificate giving its opinion as to the matters concerned and shall do so if satisfied as mentioned in subsection (3).

(3) If the court is satisfied that the amount that might be realised at the time that the confiscation order is made is less than the amount the court assesses to be the value of the defendant's proceeds of criminal conduct, the amount to be recovered under the confiscation order shall be the amount appearing to the court to be the amount that might be so realised.⁴⁷

[Section 15 subsections (1) and (3) deleted and substituted by 2015:53 s. 5 effective 1 January 2016]

16. Protection of third party rights

(1) Where an application is made for a confiscation order, a person who asserts an interest in realisable property may apply to the court, before the confiscation order is made, for an order under subsection (2).

(2) If a person applies to the court for an order under this subsection in respect of his interest in realisable property and the court is satisfied-

(a) that he was not in any way involved in the defendant's criminal conduct; and

- (b) that he acquired the interest-
 - (i) for sufficient consideration; and
 - (ii) without knowing, and in circumstances such as not to arouse a reasonable suspicion, that the property was, at the time he acquired it, property that was involved in or was the proceeds of criminal conduct, the court shall make an order declaring the nature, extent and value (as at the time the order is made) of his interest.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), where a confiscation order has already been made, a person who asserts an interest in the property may apply under this subsection to the court for an order under subsection (2).

(4) Except with the leave of the court, an application shall not be made under subsection (3)-

- (a) by a person-
 - (i) who had knowledge of the application for a confiscation order before the order was made, or
 - (ii) who appeared at the hearing of that application; or
- (b) later than 28 days beginning with the day on which the confiscation order was made.

(5) A person who makes an application under subsection (1) or (3) shall give not less than seven days' written notice of the making of the application to the Director of Public Prosecutions⁴⁸ who shall be a party to any proceedings on the application.

[section 16 amended by 2007:25 s.20 effective 15 November 2008]

SUBSEQUENT PROCEEDINGS

17. Reconsideration of case

(1) This section applies where a defendant has appeared before the Supreme Court to be sentenced in respect of one or more drug trafficking or relevant offences but the court has not made a confiscation order because either—⁴⁹

- (a) it did not proceed under this Act; or
- (b) it has made a determination that the defendant has not benefited from criminal conduct.

(2) If the Director of Public Prosecutions has evidence which was not previously available but which he believes would have led the court to determine that the defendant had benefited from criminal conduct, he may make an application to the court.⁵⁰

(3) On such an application the court shall consider the evidence and if satisfied that the defendant had so benefited, the court shall make a confiscation order and order the payment of such amount as it thinks just in all the circumstances of the case, including in particular the amount of any fine or other orders for payment imposed on the defendant in respect of the offence or offences in question.

[section 17 amended by 2007:25 s.20 effective 15 November 2008; subsections (1) and (2) deleted and substituted by 2015:53 s. 6 effective 1 January 2016]

18. Revised assessment of proceeds of criminal conduct

(1) This section applies where the court has made a determination of the amount to be recovered under a confiscation order ("the current determination").

(2) Where the Director of Public Prosecutions is of the opinion that the real value of the defendant's proceeds of criminal conduct was greater than their assessed value, he may apply to the court for the evidence on which he has formed his opinion to be considered by the court.⁵¹

(3) If, having considered the evidence, the court is satisfied that the real value of the defendant's proceeds of criminal conduct is greater than their assessed value (whether because the real value at the time of the current determination was higher than was thought or because the value of the proceeds or benefit in question has subsequently increased), the court shall make a fresh determination of the amount to be recovered under a confiscation order.⁵²

(4) In this section—

“assessed value” means the value of the defendant's proceeds of criminal conduct as assessed by the court in accordance with section 15(1) of this Act; and

“real value” means the value of the defendant's proceeds of criminal conduct which took place in the period by reference to which the current determination was made or in any earlier period.⁵³

(5) Any determination by virtue of this section shall be by reference to the amount that might be realised at the time when the determination is made.

(6) For the avoidance of doubt, section 12(6) shall not apply in relation to any of the defendant's proceeds of criminal conduct taken into account in respect of the current determination.⁵⁴

(7) If, as a result of making the fresh determination required by subsection (3), the amount to be recovered exceeds the amount set by the current determination, the court may substitute for the amount to be recovered under the confiscation order such greater amount as it thinks just in all the circumstances of the case.

(8) Where the court varies a confiscation order by virtue of this section it shall substitute for the term of imprisonment in default fixed under section 25(1) in respect of the amount to be recovered under the order such longer term as may be determined in accordance with that section in respect of the greater amount to be recovered under the order as varied.

[section 18 amended by 2007:25 s.20 effective 15 November 2008; subsections (2), (3) and (4) deleted and substituted and subsection (6) amended by 2015:53 s. 7 effective 1 January 2016]

19. Reconsideration etc: supplementary

(1) On an application under section 17 or 18, the court may take into account any payment or other reward, property or pecuniary advantage received by the defendant on or after the date of the—⁵⁵

- (a) conviction (in the case of an application under section 17 by virtue of subsection (1)(a));
- (b) determination (in the case of an application under section 17 by virtue of subsection (1)(b)); or
- (c) current determination (in the case of an application under section 18), but only if the Director of Public Prosecutions shows that it was received by the defendant in connection with criminal conduct, on or before that date.

(2) In considering any evidence which relates to any payment or reward, property or pecuniary advantage in relation to criminal conduct to which subsection (1) applies, the court shall not make the assumptions which would otherwise be required by section 12.⁵⁶

(3) No application shall be entertained by the court under section 17 or 18 if it is made after the end of the period of six years beginning with the date on which the defendant was convicted, or where the application relates to more than one conviction, the date of the latest conviction.

(4) Sections 13 and 14 apply, with such modifications as may be necessary, in relation to applications under sections 17 and 18 as they apply in relation to proceedings under section 9.⁵⁷

[section 19 amended by 2007:25 s.20 effective 15 November 2008; subsections (1) and (2) deleted and substituted and subsection (4) amended by 2015:53 s. 8 effective 1 January 2016]

20. Increase in realisable property

(1) This section applies where, by virtue of section 15(3), the amount which a person is ordered to pay under a confiscation order is less than the amount assessed to be his proceeds of drug trafficking or benefit from relevant offences (as the case may be).

(2) If, on an application made-

- (a) by the Director of Public Prosecutions⁵⁸, or
- (b) by a receiver appointed under section 28 or 31 in relation to the realisable property of the person in question, the court is satisfied that the amount that might be realised in the case of the person in question is greater than the amount taken into account in making the confiscation order (whether it was greater than was thought when the order was made or has subsequently increased), the court shall issue a certificate to that effect, giving its reasons.

(3) Where a certificate has been issued the Director of Public Prosecutions⁵⁹ may apply to the court for an increase in the amount to be recovered under the confiscation order; and on that application the court may-

- (a) substitute for that amount such amount not exceeding the amount assessed as the value referred to in subsection (1) as appears to the court to be appropriate having regard to the amount now shown to be realisable; and
- (b) increase the term of imprisonment fixed in respect of the confiscation order under section 25(1) if the effect of the substitution is to increase the maximum period applicable in relation to the order under that section.

[section 20 amended by 2007:25 s.20 effective 15 November 2008]

21. Inadequacy of realisable property

(1) If, on an application made in respect of a confiscation order,

- (a) by the defendant; or
- (b) by a receiver appointed under section 28 or 31, the court is satisfied that the realisable property is inadequate for the payment of any amount remaining to be recovered under the order, the court shall issue a certificate to that effect, giving its reasons.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1)-

- (a) in the case of realisable property held by a person who has been adjudged bankrupt, the court shall take into account the extent to which any property held by him may be distributed among creditors; and
- (b) the court may disregard any inadequacy in the realisable property which appears to the court to be attributable, wholly or partly, to anything done by the defendant for the purpose of preserving any property held by a person to whom the defendant had, directly or indirectly, made a gift caught by this Act from any risk of realisation under this Act.

- (3) Where a certificate has been issued under subsection (1), the person who applied for it may apply to the court which made the confiscation order for the amount to be recovered under the order to be reduced.
- (4) The court shall, on an application under subsection (3)-
- (a) substitute for the amount to be recovered under the order such lesser amount as the court thinks just in all the circumstances of the case; and
 - (b) substitute for the term of imprisonment in default fixed under section 25(1) in respect of the amount to be recovered under the order a shorter term if such is determined in accordance with that section in respect of the lesser amount to be recovered under the order as varied.
- (5) Any person appearing to the court to be likely to be affected by any exercise of its powers under this section shall be entitled to appear before the court and make representations.

ABSCONDED PERSONS ETC

22. Confiscation order where defendant has absconded or died

- (1) Where a person has been convicted of one or more drug trafficking or relevant offences, on the application of the Director of Public Prosecutions⁶⁰ the court may make a confiscation order against him if satisfied that he has absconded or died.
- (2) Where proceedings for one or more drug trafficking or relevant offences have been instituted but not concluded, on the application of the Director of Public Prosecutions⁶¹ the court may make a confiscation order against the defendant if satisfied that he has absconded, but shall not do so until after the period of two years beginning with the date which is, in the opinion of the court, the date on which the defendant absconded.
- (3) In any proceedings under this section-
- (a) section 12(2) shall not apply;
 - (b) section 13 shall apply with the omission of subsections (4) to (6);
 - (c) the court shall not make a confiscation order against a defendant unless it is satisfied that the Director of Public Prosecutions⁶² has taken reasonable steps to contact him; and
 - (d) any person appearing to the court to be likely to be affected by the making of a confiscation order shall be entitled to appear before the court and make representations.
- (4) Where an application has been made to the court under this section in relation to a defendant who has absconded and the court has decided not to make a confiscation order against him, section 17 shall not apply at any time while he remains an absconder.

[section 22 amended by 2007:25 s.20 effective 15 November 2008]

23. Variation of order made against absconder

- (1) Where a confiscation order is made by virtue of section 22(2) and the defendant ceases to be an absconder, he may apply to the court for a variation of the amount to be recovered under the order.
- (2) If on such an application the court is satisfied that the value of the defendant's proceeds of criminal conduct⁶³ in the period by reference to which the determination in question was made⁶⁴, or the amount that might have been realised at the time the order was made, was less than the amount ordered to be paid under the confiscation order, the court-

- (a) may if it considers it just in all the circumstances reduce the amount to be recovered under the confiscation order, and
- (b) if it does so, shall reduce the term of imprisonment in default in accordance with section 25(1).

(3) Where the court reduces the amount to be recovered under a confiscation order it may, on the application of a person who held property which was realisable property, order compensation to be paid to him if satisfied that he has suffered loss as a result of the making of the confiscation order and if, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, it considers it appropriate to do so.

(4) No application shall be entertained by the court if it is made after the end of six years beginning on the day on which the confiscation order was made.

[Section 23 subsection (2) amended by 2015:53 s. 9 effective 1 January 2016]

24. Discharge of order where absconder acquitted etc

(1) Where a confiscation order is made by virtue of section 22(2) and the defendant is subsequently tried for the offence or offences in question and acquitted on all counts, the court shall cancel the confiscation order.

(2) Where a confiscation order is made by virtue of section 22(2) against a person who ceases to be an absconder and subsection (1) of this section does not apply, the court may on the application of the defendant cancel the confiscation order if satisfied that-

- (a) there has been undue delay in continuing the proceedings in respect of which the power under section 22(2) of this Act was exercised; or
- (b) the Director of Public Prosecutions⁶⁵ does not intend to proceed with the prosecution.

(3) Where the court cancels a confiscation order under this section it may, on the application of a person who held property which was realisable property, order compensation to be paid to him if satisfied that he has suffered loss as a result of the making of the confiscation order and if, having regard to all the circumstances of the case it considers it appropriate to do so.

(4) Where the court cancels a confiscation order under this section it may make such consequential or incidental order as it thinks fit.

[section 24 amended by 2007:25 s.20 effective 15 November 2008]

PART III -ENFORCEMENT OF CONFISCATION ORDERS

DEFAULT POWERS

25. Imprisonment in default

(1) Notwithstanding section 63 of the Criminal Jurisdiction and Procedure Act 2015 (period of imprisonment in default of payment of fine or costs)⁶⁶, where the court orders the defendant to pay an amount under a confiscation order it shall in addition direct him to be imprisoned in default of payment of any amount under the confiscation order as follows-

- (a) if the amount does not exceed $20,000, for a term not exceeding 2 years;
- (b) if the amount exceeds $20,000 but does not exceed $50,000, for a term not exceeding 5 years;
- (c) if the amount exceeds $50,000 but does not exceed $100,000, for a term not exceeding 7 years; and

(d) if the amount exceeds $100,000, for a term not exceeding 10 years.

(2) Where—

- (a) a warrant to commit the defendant to prison is issued for a default in payment of an amount ordered to be paid under a confiscation order in respect of an offence or offences; and
- (b) at the time the warrant is issued, the defendant is liable to serve any term of imprisonment in respect of the offence or offences, the term of imprisonment to be served in default of payment of the amount shall not begin to run until after the term mentioned in paragraph (b).

(3) Where a defendant serves a term of imprisonment in default of paying any amount due under a confiscation order, his serving that term does not prevent the confiscation order from continuing to have effect, so far as any other method of enforcement is concerned.

[Section 25 subsection (1) amended by 2017:35 s. 2 effective 3 November 2017]

26. Interest on unpaid sums

(1) If any sum required to be paid by a person under a confiscation order is not paid when it is required to be paid, that person shall be liable to pay interest on that sum for the period for which it remains unpaid; and the amount of interest shall for the purposes of enforcement, be treated as part of the amount to be recovered from him under the confiscation order.

- (4) The conditions referred to in subsection (3) are that—
- (a) the respondent obtained the recoverable property in good faith;
 - (b) he took steps after obtaining the property which he would not have taken if he had not obtained it or he took steps before obtaining the property which he would not have taken if he had not believed he was going to obtain it;
 - (c) when he took the steps, he had no notice that the property was recoverable property;
 - (d) if a recovery order were made in respect of the property, it would, by reason of the steps, be detrimental to him.
- (5) In deciding whether it would be just and equitable to make the provision in the recovery order where the conditions in subsection (4) are met, the court shall have regard to—

- (5) The trustee has the powers mentioned in Schedule 2.
- (6) References in this section to a recovery order include an order under section 36.1D and references to property vested in the trustee by a recovery order include property vested in him in pursuance of an order under that section.

- (2) A right of pre-emption, right of return or other similar right does not operate or become exercisable as a result of the vesting of any property under a recovery order.
- (3) A right of return means any right under a provision for the return or reversion of property in specified circumstances.
- (4) Where property is vested under a recovery order, any such right is to have effect as if the person in whom the property is vested were the same person in law as the person who held the property and as if no transfer of the property had taken place.
- (5) References to rights in subsections (2) and (3) do not include any rights in respect of which the recovery order was made.

- (3) A case is within this subsection if—
 - (a) the recoverable property belongs to joint tenants; and
 - (b) one of the tenants is an excepted joint owner.

(4) An excepted joint owner is a person who obtained the property in circumstances in which it would not be recoverable as against him; and references to the excepted joint owner's share of the recoverable property are to so much of the recoverable property as would have been his if the joint tenancy had been severed.

[Section 36.1A inserted by 2013:40 s. 6 effective 1 November 2013]

36.1B Agreements about associated and joint property¹²³

(1) The recovery order may, instead of vesting the recoverable property in the trustee for civil recovery, require the person who holds the associated property or who is the excepted joint owner to make a payment to the trustee where—

- (a) this section applies; and
- (b) the enforcement authority (on the one hand) and the person who holds the associated property or who is the excepted joint owner (on the other) agree.

(2) A recovery order which makes any requirement under subsection (1) may, so far as required for giving effect to the agreement, include provision for vesting, creating or extinguishing any interest in property.

(3) The amount of the payment is to be the amount which the enforcement authority and that person agree represents—

- (a) in a case within section 36.1A(2), the value of the recoverable property;
- (b) in a case within section 36.1A(3), the value of the recoverable property less the value of the excepted joint owner's share.

(4) But if—

- (a) an interim receiving order applied at any time to the associated property or joint tenancy; and
- (b) the enforcement authority agrees that the person has suffered loss as a result of the interim receiving order, the amount of the payment may be reduced by any amount the enforcement authority and that person agree is reasonable, having regard to that loss and to any other relevant circumstances.

(5) If there is more than one such item of associated property or excepted joint owner, the total amount to be paid to the trustee, and the part of that amount which is to be provided by each person who holds any such associated property or who is an excepted joint owner, is to be agreed between both (or all) of them and the enforcement authority.

(6) A recovery order which makes any requirement under subsection (1) shall make provision for any recoverable property to cease to be recoverable.

[Section 36.1B inserted by 2013:40 s. 6 effective 1 November 2013]

36.1C Associated and joint property: default of agreement¹²⁴

(1) Where this section applies, the court may make the following provision if—

- (a) there is no agreement under section 36.1B; and
- (b) the court thinks it just and equitable to do so.

(2) The recovery order may provide—

- (a) for the associated property to vest in the trustee for civil recovery or (as the case may be) for the excepted joint owner's interest to be extinguished; or
 - (b) in the case of an excepted joint owner, for the severance of his interest.
- (3) A recovery order making any provision by virtue of subsection (2)(a) may provide—
- (a) for the trustee to pay an amount to the person who holds the associated property or who is an excepted joint owner; or
 - (b) for the creation of interests in favour of that person, or the imposition of liabilities or conditions, in relation to the property vested in the trustee, or for both.

- (4) In making any provision in a recovery order by virtue of subsection (2) or (3), the court shall have regard to—
- (a) the rights of any person who holds the associated property or who is an excepted joint owner and the value to him of that property or, as the case may be, of his share (including any value which cannot be assessed in terms of money);
 - (b) the enforcement authority's interest in receiving the realised proceeds of the recoverable property.
- (5) If—
- (a) an interim receiving order applied at any time to the associated property or joint tenancy; and
 - (b) the court is satisfied that the person who holds the associated property or who is an excepted joint owner has suffered loss as a result of the interim receiving order, a recovery order making any provision by virtue of subsection (2) or (3) may require the enforcement authority to pay compensation to that person.

- (6) The amount of compensation to be paid under subsection (5) is the amount the court thinks reasonable, having regard to the person's loss and to any other relevant circumstances.

[Section 36.1C inserted by 2013:40 s. 6 effective 1 November 2013]

36.1D Consent orders¹²⁵

- (1) The court may make an order staying any proceedings for a recovery order on terms agreed by the parties for the disposal of the proceedings if each person to whose property the proceedings, or the agreement, relates is a party both to the proceedings and the agreement.
- (2) An order under subsection (1) may, as well as staying the proceedings on terms—
- (a) make provision for any property which may be recoverable property to cease to be recoverable;
 - (b) make any further provision which the court thinks appropriate.
- (3) Section 36.1G applies to property vested in the trustee for civil recovery, or money paid to him, in pursuance of the agreement as it applies to property vested in him by a recovery order or money paid under section 36.1B.

[Section 36.1D inserted by 2013:40 s. 6 effective 1 November 2013]

36.1E Limit on recovery¹²⁶

- (1) This section applies if the enforcement authority seeks a recovery order in respect of both property which is or represents property obtained through unlawful conduct and related property.
- (2) For the purposes of this section—
 - (a) the original property means the property obtained through unlawful conduct;
 - (b) the original property, and any items of property which represent the original property, are to be treated as related to each other.
- (3) The court is not to make a recovery order if it thinks that the enforcement authority's right to recover the original property has been satisfied by a previous recovery order.
- (4) Subject to subsection (3), the court may act under subsection (5) if it thinks that—
 - (a) a recovery order may be made in respect of two or more related items of recoverable property; but
 - (b) the making of a recovery order in respect of both or all of them is not required in order to satisfy the enforcement authority's right to recover the original property.
- (5) The court may in order to satisfy that right to the extent required make a recovery order in respect of—
 - (a) only some of the related items of property; or
 - (b) only a part of any of the related items of property,or both.
- (6) Where the court may make a recovery order in respect of any property, this section does not prevent the recovery of any profits which have accrued in respect of the property.
- (7) If—
 - (a) an order is made under section 51 for the forfeiture of property which is later determined is recoverable property; and
 - (b) the enforcement authority subsequently seeks a recovery order in respect of related property,the order under section 51 is to be treated for the purposes of this section as if it were a recovery order obtained by the enforcement authority in respect of the forfeited property.
- (8) If—
 - (a) in pursuance of a judgment in civil proceedings (whether in Bermuda or elsewhere), the claimant has obtained property from the defendant ("the judgment property");
 - (b) the claim was based on the defendant's having obtained the judgment property or related property through unlawful conduct; and
 - (c) the enforcement authority subsequently seeks a recovery order in respect of property which is related to the judgment property,the judgment is to be treated for the purposes of this section as if it were a recovery order obtained by the enforcement authority in respect of the judgment property.
- (9) If—

- (a) property has been taken into account in deciding the amount of a person's benefit from criminal conduct for the purpose of making a confiscation order under section 9¹²⁷; and
- (b) the enforcement authority subsequently seeks a recovery order in respect of related property, the confiscation order is to be treated for the purposes of this section as if it were a recovery order obtained by the enforcement authority in respect of the property referred to in paragraph (a).

[Section 36.1E inserted by 2013:40 s. 6 effective 1 November 2013; amended by 2015:53 s. 2 effective 1 January 2016]

36.1F Section 36.1E: Supplementary¹²⁸

(2) If—

- (a) there is a disposal, other than a part disposal, of the original property; and
- (b) other property (the representative property) is obtained in its place, the enforcement authority's right to recover the original property is satisfied by the making of a recovery order in respect of either the original property or the representative property.

(3) If—

- (a) there is a part disposal of the original property; and
- (b) other property (the representative property) is obtained in place of the property disposed of, a police officer may apply to the Supreme Court for an order under subsection (2) (a “production order”) in relation to particular material or material of a particular description.

(2) The court may, if on such an application it is satisfied that the conditions in subsection (4) are fulfilled, make a production order requiring the person who appears to the court to be in possession of the material to which the application relates-

- (a) to produce it to a police officer for him to take away; or
- (b) to give a police officer access to it,

within such period as the order may specify.

This subsection has effect subject to section 40(10).

(4) The conditions referred to in subsection (2) are-

- (a) that there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that—¹⁵⁸
 - (i) a specified person has carried on drug trafficking, or money laundering or has benefited from criminal conduct; or
 - (ii) in the case of a civil recovery investigation, the property the application for the order specifies as being subject to the investigation is recoverable property or associated property;
- (b) that there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that the material to which the application relates-
 - (i) is likely to be of substantial value (whether by itself or together with other material) to the investigation for the purpose of which the application is made; and
 - (ii) does not consist of or include items subject to legal privilege; and
- (c) that there are reasonable grounds for believing that it is in the public interest, having regard-
 - (i) to the benefit likely to accrue to the investigation if the material is obtained; and
 - (ii) to the circumstances under which the person in possession of the material holds it, that the material should be produced or that access to it should be given.

(5) Where the court makes a production order under subsection (2)(b) in relation to material on any premises, it may, on the same or a subsequent application of a police officer, order any person who appears to him to be entitled to grant entry to the premises to allow a police officer to enter the premises to obtain access to the material.

(11) Where the investigation into whether a person has benefited from criminal conduct or the whereabouts of the proceeds of criminal conduct relates to a relevant offence or a civil recovery investigation relates to unlawful conduct¹⁵⁹ which was not committed in Bermuda, an application under subsection (1) shall not be made unless the provisions of section 6 of the Criminal Justice (International Co-operation) (Bermuda) Act 1994 (Bermudian evidence for use overseas) as modified by subsection (12) have been complied with.

 - (ii) it is not practicable to communicate with any person entitled to grant access to the material or entitled to grant entry to the premises on which the material is situated; or
 - (iii) the investigation for the purposes of which the application is made might be seriously prejudiced unless a police officer could secure immediate access to the material.

as is likely to be of substantial value (whether by itself or together with other material) to the investigation for the purpose of which the application is made, but that the material cannot at the time of the application be particularised; and

- (c) that-

- (i) it is not practicable to communicate with any person entitled to grant entry to the premises;
- (ii) entry to the premises will not be granted unless a warrant is produced; or
- (iii) the investigation for the purposes of which the application is made might be seriously prejudiced unless a police officer arriving at the premises could secure immediate entry to them.

(4A) The conditions referred to in subsection (2)(d) are—¹⁶⁸

- (a) that there are reasonable grounds for believing that the property specified in the application for the warrant is recoverable property or associated property;
- (b) that the material cannot be identified at the time of the application but—
 - (i) it relates to the property specified in the application, the question whether it is recoverable property or associated property, the question as to who holds any such property; and
 - (ii) any question as to whether the person who appears to hold any such property holds other property which is recoverable property, or any question as to the extent or whereabouts of any property mentioned in this paragraph; and
