Preface

As a service to our clients, we have prepared this compendium of the BVI Business Companies Act together with related regulations and notices incorporating all amendments to date.

In December 2024, the BVIFSC published guidance on implementing the beneficial ownership regime and guidelines on beneficial ownership obligations under the AML regime. The section Beneficial Ownership Guidance and Related Information includes links to the guidelines and recent related industry circulars. The Guidelines should be read in conjunction with relevant legislation and do not have the force of law.

The most recent legislative update includes amendments to the BVI Business Companies Act, Revised Edition 2020 made by BVI Business Companies (Amendment of Schedule 1) Order, 2025 and amendments to the BVI Business Companies and Limited Partnerships (Beneficial Ownership) Regulations, 2024 made by the BVI Business Companies and Limited Partnerships (Beneficial Ownership) (Amendment) Regulations, 2025 both in force 1 July 2025.

The previous update included amendments to the BVI Business Companies Act, Revised Edition 2020 made by the BVI Business Companies (Amendment) Act, 2024, the BVI Business Companies (Amendment of Schedule 1) Order, 2024, and BVI Business Companies (Amendment of Schedule 1) (No. 2) Order, 2024 as well as amendments to the BVI Business Companies Regulations, Revised Edition 2020 made by the BVI Business Companies (Amendment) Regulations, 2024, and the inclusion of the BVI Business Companies and Limited Partnerships (Beneficial Ownership) Regulations, 2024 all in force on 2 January 2025. Please also see Schedule 2, Part VIIB, Transitional Provisions in Relation to Companies Requires to File Registers of Members and Beneficial Ownership Information.

Other amendments included amendments to section 98A of the BVI Business Companies Act, Revised Edition 2020 made by the BVI Business Companies (Amendment) (No. 2) Act, 2024 deemed to have come into force 1 September 2024.

- (4) All shares in the company that were outstanding prior to the issue by the Registrar of a certificate of continuation shall be deemed to have been issued in conformity with this Act.

184. Continuation under foreign law

(1) Subject to subsections (1A), (1B) and (2) and ⁴¹³ its memorandum or articles, a company for which the Registrar would issue a certificate of good standing pursuant to section 235(1) may, by a resolution of directors or by a resolution of members, continue as a company incorporated under the laws of a jurisdiction outside the Virgin Islands in the manner provided under those laws. ⁴¹⁴

(1A) Where a company that wishes to continue as a company incorporated under the laws of a jurisdiction outside the Virgin Islands has a charge registered in respect of the property of the company under section 163 which has not been released or satisfied, it shall, before continuing and provided that the charge does not contain a covenant prohibiting continuation of the company outside the Virgin Islands, provide a written declaration addressed to the Registrar specifying that — ⁴¹⁵

- (a) a notice of satisfaction or release in respect of the charge has been filed and registered under section 165;
- (b) where paragraph (a) has not been complied with, the chargee to whom the registered charge relates has been notified in writing of the intention to continue the company as a company incorporated under the laws of a jurisdiction outside the Virgin Islands and the chargee has given his or her consent or has not objected to the continuation; or
- (c) where paragraph (a) has not been satisfied and the chargee, after notification under paragraph (b), has not given his or her consent or objected to the continuation, the chargee's interest secured by the registered charge shall not be diminished or in any way compromised by the continuation and the charge shall operate as a liability to which subsection (5) (a) applies.

(1B) Where a company intends to continue as a company incorporated under the laws of a jurisdiction outside the Virgin Islands, it shall ⁴¹⁶

(2) A company that continues as a company incorporated under the laws of a jurisdiction outside the Virgin Islands does not cease to be a company incorporated under this Act, unless — ⁴¹⁹

- (b) the registered agent of the company has filed with the Registrar the required notice of continuance under subsection (3); and
- (c) the Registrar has issued a certificate of discontinuance of the company under subsection (4).

- (b) the company has complied with those laws.

(2B) Subject to subsections (2) and (2A), where the continuation of a company under the laws of a jurisdiction outside the Virgin Islands is dependent upon the issuing of a certificate of discontinuance under subsection (4) (a), the Registrar may rely upon a provisional certificate of continuance (however described) issued in respect of that company under the laws of that jurisdiction as a basis to issue the certificate of discontinuance. ⁴²¹

(3) The registered agent of a company that continues as a company incorporated under the laws of a jurisdiction outside the Virgin Islands may file a notice of the company's continuance in the approved form. ⁴²²

(4) If the Registrar is satisfied that the requirements of this Act in respect of the continuation of a company under the laws of a foreign jurisdiction have been complied with, he or she shall—

- (5) Where a company is continued under the laws of a jurisdiction outside the Virgin Islands—

 - (c) no proceedings, whether civil or criminal, pending by or against the company, or against any member, director, officer or agent thereof, are abated or discontinued by its continuation as a company under the laws of the jurisdiction outside the Virgin Islands, but the proceedings may be enforced, prosecuted, settled or compromised by or against the company or against the member, director, officer or agent thereof, as the case may be; and
 - (d) service of process may continue to be effected on the registered agent of the company in the Virgin Islands in respect of any claim, debt, liability or obligation of the company during its existence as a company under this Act.

PART XA - MEMBERS' REMEDIES⁴²⁵

184A. Interpretation for this Part

In this Part, “member” in relation to a company, means—

- (c) an unlimited member of an unlimited company.

184B. Restraining or compliance order

(1) If a company or a director of a company engages in, or proposes to engage in or has engaged in⁴²⁶ conduct that contravenes this Act or the memorandum or articles of the company, the Court may, on the application of a member or a director of the company, make an order directing the company or director to comply with, or restraining the company or director from engaging in conduct that contravenes, this Act or the memorandum or articles.

(2) If the Court makes an order under subsection (1), it may also grant such consequential relief as it thinks fit.

(3) The Court may, at any time before the final determination of an application under subsection (1), make, as an interim order, any order that it could make as a final order under that subsection.

184C. Derivative actions

(1) Subject to subsection (3), the Court may, on the application of a member of a company, grant leave to that member to—

- (a) bring proceedings in the name and on behalf of that company; or
 - (b) intervene in proceedings to which the company is a party for the purpose of continuing, defending or discontinuing the proceedings on behalf of the company.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), in determining whether to grant leave under that subsection, the Court must take the following matters into account—
- (a) whether the member is acting in good faith;
 - (b) whether the derivative action is in the interests of the company taking account of the views of the company's directors on commercial matters;
 - (c) whether the proceedings are likely to succeed;
 - (d) the costs of the proceedings in relation to the relief likely to be obtained; and
 - (e) whether an alternative remedy to the derivative claim is available.
- (3) Leave to bring or intervene in proceedings may be granted under subsection (1) only if the Court is satisfied that—
- (a) the company does not intend to bring, diligently continue or defend, or discontinue the proceedings, as the case may be; or
 - (b) it is in the interests of the company that the conduct of the proceedings should not be left to the directors or to the determination of the shareholders or members as a whole.
- (4) Unless the Court otherwise orders, not less than 28 days notice of an application for leave under subsection (1) must be served on the company and the company is entitled to appear and be heard at the hearing of the application.
- (5) The Court may grant such interim relief as it considers appropriate pending the determination of an application under subsection (1).
- (6) Except as provided in this section, a member is not entitled to bring or intervene in any proceedings in the name of or on behalf of a company.

184D. Costs of derivative action

- (1) If the Court grants leave to a member to bring or intervene in proceedings under section 184C, it shall, on the application of the member, order that the whole of the reasonable costs of bringing or intervening in the proceedings must be met by the company unless the Court considers that it would be unjust or inequitable for the company to bear those costs.
- (2) If the Court, on an application made by a member under subsection (1), considers that it would be unjust or inequitable for the company to bear the whole of the reasonable costs of bringing or intervening in the proceedings, it may order—
- (a) that the company bear such proportion of the costs as it considers to be reasonable; or
 - (b) that the company shall not bear any of the costs.

184E. Powers of Court when leave granted under section 184C

- (b) an order giving directions for the conduct of the proceedings;

- (c) an order that the company or its directors provide information or assistance in relation to the proceedings; and
- (d) an order directing that any amount ordered to be paid by a defendant in the proceedings must be paid in whole or in part to former and present members of the company instead of to the company.

184F. Compromise, settlement or withdrawal of derivative action

No proceedings brought by a member or in which a member intervenes with the leave of the Court under section 184C may be settled or compromised or discontinued without the approval of the Court.

184G. Personal actions by members

A member of a company may bring an action against the company for breach of a duty owed by the company to him or her as a member.

184H. Representative actions

Where a member of a company brings proceedings against the company and other members that have the same or substantially the same interest in relation to the proceedings, the Court may appoint that member to represent all or some of the members having the same interest and may, for that purpose, make such order as it thinks fit, including an order—

- (a) as to the control and conduct of the proceedings;
- (b) as to the costs of the proceedings; and
- (c) directing the distribution of any amount ordered to be paid by a defendant in the proceedings among the members represented.

184I. Prejudiced members

(1) A member of a company who considers that the affairs of the company have been, are being or are likely to be, conducted in a manner that is, or any act or acts of the company have been, or are, likely to be oppressive, unfairly discriminatory, or unfairly prejudicial to him or her in that capacity, may apply to the Court for an order under this section.

(2) If, on an application under this section, the Court considers that it is just and equitable to do so, it may make such order as it thinks fit, including, without limiting the generality of this subsection, one or more of the following orders—

- (h) setting aside any decision made or action taken by the company or its directors in breach of this Act or the memorandum or articles of the company.

18A. Restrictions to beneficial owner's interest ⁹¹¹

- (1) In this regulation and regulations 18B and 18C, the term "relevant interest" means an interest that a beneficial owner holds in a legal entity consisting of

 - (b) in the case of a legal entity that is a limited partnership, 10% or more share of the capital or profits of the limited partnership or 10% or more voting rights in the limited partnership.

(2) Where the Registrar receives a notice in accordance with regulation 18(9), he or she may, subject to subregulations (3), (4) and (5), serve the legal entity with a notice (restriction notice) restricting any rights or transactions in the relevant interest.

(3) In deciding whether to serve a restriction notice under subregulation (2), the Registrar shall have regard to the effect the notice may have on the rights of persons in relation to the relevant interest, including third parties, persons with a security interest over the relevant interest, registered shareholders and other beneficial owners.

(4) The Registrar shall withdraw a restriction notice served in accordance with subregulation (2), if he or she

- (a) is satisfied that the beneficial owner to whom the relevant interest relates has been identified in accordance with regulation 18;
- (b) discovers that the rights of a third party, person with a security interest, registered shareholder or other beneficial owner in relation to the relevant interest are being unfairly affected by the restriction notice; or
- (c) is satisfied that there is a valid reason or justification (such as death of the beneficial owner, relocation of the beneficial owner from his or her usual place of residence or other similar reason) for the failure to identify the beneficial owner in accordance with regulation 18.

(5) A restriction notice served by the Registrar in accordance with subregulation (2) shall not

- (a) affect or prejudice the right of a secured creditor to enforce its security over the relevant interest; or
- (b) take effect if the relevant interest to which it relates is subject to a pre-existing security interest granted to a third party who is not affiliated with the legal entity.

18B. Effect of a restriction notice ⁹¹²

(1) Subject to regulation 18A(5), where the Registrar serves a restriction notice with respect to a relevant interest and for as long as the restriction notice remains in effect

(2) This regulation does not apply to an agreement to transfer a relevant interest referred to in subregulation (1)(a) or to an associated right referred to in subregulation (1)(d)(ii), if the agreement results in the relevant interest being transferred for valuable consideration and the Court approves the transfer.

- (2) The Court may, on an application under subregulation (1), make an order giving directions for the purpose of protecting the rights of third parties, persons with a security interest over the relevant interest, shareholders or other beneficial owners in respect of a relevant interest, if the Court is satisfied that a restriction notice unfairly affects those rights.
- (3) An order under subregulation (2) may
 - (a) direct, subject to such terms as the Court considers fit, that certain acts do not constitute a breach of the restrictions placed on the relevant interest by the restriction notice;
 - (b) specify the acts that do not constitute a breach of the restriction notice; and
 - (c) confine the direction to cases where those acts are done by persons, or for purposes, described in the order.
- (4) Subject to subregulation (2), a legal entity on which a restriction notice has been served by the Registrar may apply to the Court to sell the relevant interest in the legal entity.
- (5) An application under this regulation shall not be made

 - (b) if the beneficial owner to whom the relevant interest relates has been identified in accordance with regulation 18.
- (6) Upon an application being made under subregulation (4) which does not contravene subregulation (5), the Court may order that the relevant interest that is the subject of a restriction notice be sold on such terms and conditions as the Court approves.
- (7) The Court may make such further order relating to the sale or transfer of the relevant interest, including an order vesting the relevant interest in the name of the legal entity or authorising the Registrar of the Court to execute any transfer documents on behalf of the holder of the relevant interest, and costs related to the sale, as it considers fit on application by
 - (a) the legal entity on which the restriction notice was served;
 - (b) the person appointed in pursuance of the order to effect the sale; or
 - (c) any other person with an interest in the relevant interest.
- (8) Where, pursuant to subregulation (6) or (7), a relevant interest is sold, the proceeds of the sale, less the costs of the sale, shall be paid into Court for the benefit of persons who are beneficially interested in the relevant interest.
- (9) A person who is beneficially interested in the relevant interest may apply to the Court for the whole or part of the proceeds of sale to be paid to that person.
- (10) On an application being made under subregulation (9), the Court may order the payment to the applicant of
 - (a) the whole of the proceeds of sale together with any interest on the proceeds; or

- (b) such proportion of the proceeds (and any interest) as the value of the applicant's interest bears to the total value of the relevant interest, if another person was also beneficially interested in the relevant interest at the time of the sale.

(11) Where the Court has ordered the costs of an applicant to be paid from the proceeds of sale, the applicant is entitled to payment of those costs before any person receives any part of the proceeds under this regulation.

The BO Regulations set out the framework for the collection and maintenance of Beneficial Ownership information for legal persons and legal arrangements in the Virgin Islands and is aligned with domestic AML legislation and international standards. These Guidelines have been developed to assist persons in understanding the requirements of the BO Regulations, and how the Commission and the Registrar intend to apply them, including:

- obligations on legal entities to file beneficial ownership information;
- the nature of the information required to be filed;
- the process of filing;
- powers of the Registrar in relation to: o beneficial ownership registers, and o transactions;
- details on the inspection of the beneficial ownership registers;
- any exemptions available under the BO Regulations; and

These Guidelines should be read in conjunction with relevant legislation, such as the BO Regulations, the BVI Business Companies Act and the Limited Partnership Act.

Beneficial Ownership Obligations under the AML Regulations and AMLTF Code of Practice – BVI FSC and FIA, 20 December 2024

These Guidelines have been developed to assist Financial Institutions supervised by the FSC and Designated Non-Financial Businesses and Professions supervised for AML/CFT purposes by the FIA in understanding the requirements for collecting and maintaining Beneficial Ownership (BO) information under the Virgin Islands' AML/CFT/CPF regime.

Details within the Guidelines provide in-depth context of beneficial ownership and control elements for companies, partnerships, trusts and other arrangements that a relevant person may encounter. They cover scenarios of direct and indirect ownership, as well as the risks that may exist in more complex ownership structures.

A key purpose of the Guidelines is to aid entities in understanding how to determine the BO information that is required to be maintained for different legal entities, including companies, partnerships and those involving trusts. The Guidelines also provide guidance on entities' legal obligations to identify and verify BO information, including where ownership is by way of control, and to ensure this information is properly maintained and kept up to date.

The BVI Financial Services Commission (the Commission) hereby issues the following update regarding the filing of Beneficial Ownership (BO) information, obtaining certified copies of registers of members, and the restoration of struck off and dissolved companies. Industry practitioners are asked to take note accordingly.

The function to file BO information will include a dropdown to select the occupation of the Beneficial Owner. See the list of occupations.

When filing BO information in batch or single filing, it is important to note that the data exported from the practitioner's system in relation to occupation should align with a specific occupation in the dropdown. There is a selection in the dropdown for 'other'; however, this will not be automatically populated by VIRRGIN if an entry in the spreadsheet does not match one in the dropdown list. Any occupation submitted that is not in the dropdown will result in the batch being rejected; Therefore, if a specified occupation is not on the list, it should be identified as 'other'.

BVI BUSINESS COMPANIES (FINANCIAL RETURN) ORDER, 2023

[Gazetted 2nd March, 2023]

The Financial Services Commission, acting in accordance with the powers conferred by section 98A(2)(b) of the BVI Business Companies Act, Revised Edition 2020, makes the following Order:

1. Citation and commencement

- (1) This Order may be cited as the BVI Business Companies (Financial Return) Order, 2023.
- (2) This Order shall be deemed to have come into force on the 1st day of January, 2023.

2. Definition

- (1) In this Order, a reference to
 - (a) “Act” means the BVI Business Companies Act, Revised Edition 2020;
 - (b) “annual return” shall be construed in accordance with section 98A(1) of the Act, and “financial return” shall be construed accordingly; and
 - (c) “year” shall be construed in accordance with section 98A(7) of the Act.
- (2) The reference in the Schedule to the denomination “US$” (the USA currency) may be substituted by any other currency in which a company prepares its financial statements.

3. Form of annual return

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), every company shall, in respect of each year, file with its registered agent an annual return in the form, and containing the information, specified in the Schedule.

[Guideline: By virtue of section 98A(7) of the Act, the reference to “year” relates to a company’s fiscal or financial year which may be a calendar year. If a company’s fiscal or financial year does not correspond to a calendar year, the reference to “year” relates to the company’s stated fiscal or financial year. Thus, the requirement to file an annual return relates to the company’s fiscal or financial year, however that is determined and applied by the company.]

The earliest date an annual return becomes due (as opposed to when it must be filed) from a company is 1st January, 2024, considering that section 98A of the Act and this Order came into effect on 1st January, 2023. This will relate to a company that has a calendar year as its financial year. The company has until 30th September, 2024 to file its annual return that became due on 1st January, 2024.

If a company has a fiscal or financial year that does not correspond to a calendar year, its annual return becomes due in 2024, depending on the month in which the commencement of its financial year falls. However, it may have until any period in 2025 to file its first annual return. For example, Company A’s fiscal or financial year is from March to February. For the purposes of complying with its annual return filing under the Act, Company A’s first annual return becomes due on 1st March, 2024, but it has until 30th November, 2024 to file the annual return.

If, on the other hand, Company A’s fiscal or financial year is from May to April, its first annual return becomes due on 1st May, 2024, but the Company has until 31st January, 2025 to file the annual return.]

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a company that is exempted by virtue of section 98A of the Act.

[Guideline: The companies exempted under section 98A(5) of the Act are the following:

- (a) a listed company, meaning a company that is listed on a stock exchange;

- (b) a company that is regulated under a financial services legislation and provides financial statements to the Commission in accordance with the requirements of that financial services legislation;
- (c) a company that files its annual tax return to the Inland Revenue Department accompanied by the company's financial statements; and
- (d) a company in liquidation, except that this exemption does not apply if the company's annual return becomes due prior to the commencement of the liquidation.

[Guideline (in relation to a company in liquidation): Company A has a calendar year (January – December) as its financial year. Its annual return becomes due from 1st January to 30th September of the ensuing year. In June of that ensuing year, the company decides to go into liquidation before it has filed its annual return. The company is bound to file its annual return because its liquidation commenced after the annual return became due.

On the other hand, Company B has a calendar year (January – December) as its financial year. However, in June of that calendar year Company B goes into liquidation before its annual return for that year becomes due. Company B is not required to file an annual return for that calendar year.

The same rule applies if a company's fiscal or financial year is different from a calendar year. For example, if Company C's fiscal or financial year commences on 1st April in a particular year ("the First Year") and ends in March of the following year ("the Second Year"), the company's annual return becomes due on 1st April of the Second Year (even though the company has until 31st December of the Second Year to file its annual return). Consequently, if Company C goes into liquidation in May of the Second Year, it is liable to file its annual return as the annual return would have become due on 1st April of the Second Year. If, on the other hand, Company C goes into liquidation in November of the First Year, it is not liable to file an annual return for that Year.]
