CONYERS

Conyers advises Semiconductor Manufacturing International Corporation in connection with its RMB1.5 billion second tranche super short term notes

1 minute read | Deals & Transactions

Print Page

Apr 2020

Conyers acted as Cayman Islands counsel to the issue by Semiconductor Manufacturing International Corporation ("SMIC") of up to RMB1.5 billion 2020 second tranche super short term notes with a repayment term of no more than 111 days traded on the National Association of Financial Market Institutional Investors in PRC.

SMIC provides integrated circuit foundry and technology services worldwide including the testing, development and design, manufacturing, packaging and sale of integrated circuits. It is headquartered in Shanghai, China and is the country's largest contract chip manufacturer as at March 2020.

Partner Christopher Bickley and Legal Manager Rowan Wu of Conyers' Hong Kong office advised on the matter working alongside Llinks Law Offices.

Authors

Christopher W.H. Bickley

PARTNER, HEAD OF ASIA AND MANAGING PARTNER OF HONG KONG OFFICE

Hong Kong

T +852 2842 9556

M +852 6469 3356

christopher.bickley@conyers.com

LinkedIn | vCard

Rowan Wu

HEAD OF CORPORATE SERVICES HONG KONG

Hong Kong

T +852 2842 9554

M +852 6469 3386

rowan.wu@conyers.com

LinkedIn | vCard