

Conyers is currently seeking an ambitious and talented lawyer to join its Disputes & Restructuring practice in Hong Kong. The team advises clients on a broad range of complex offshore disputes and restructuring matters, acting for international clients on high-profile and cross-border assignments.

Conyers is part of the offshore 'Magic Circle', with strength and depth across a variety of practice groups. That means that the firm's lawyers work on a wide range of complex matters involving, for example, investment funds, fiduciaries, listed companies, managers and insurers. We assist clients around the world and work closely with onshore counsel.

What Will You Do

Work closely with the Disputes & Restructuring partners and counsel on a broad range of complex offshore matters, including:

- Complex commercial and corporate disputes, including shareholder and joint venture disputes
- Restructuring, insolvency and winding-up matters
- Fraud, asset tracing and enforcement matters
- International arbitration and related court proceedings
- Private wealth and trust disputes
- Cross-border matters involving Bermuda, the BVI and Cayman Islands
- Working with onshore counsel, liquidators and other professional advisers on multi-jurisdictional matters
- Managing matters and working with other members of the team
- Participating in client development and business development activities

What You'll Need

- At least 5 years' post-qualification experience, preferably with an offshore or major international law firm
- Qualification in England & Wales, Hong Kong, Australia or another common law jurisdiction
- Bermuda, BVI and/or Cayman Islands qualification would be an advantage
- Good experience in commercial litigation, insolvency and restructuring and/or international arbitration
- Strong analytical, drafting and communication skills
- A commercial and practical approach to handling matters
- Ability to work well with partners, counsel and other lawyers as part of a team
- An interest in developing client relationships and contributing to the growth of the practice
- Fluency in English, with Cantonese and/or Mandarin preferred

To apply, please send your CV to careers@conyers.com. Closing date is 31 December 2026.
